TERMS OF SALE

- 1) A 10% buyers charge will be added to the hammer price of each lot purchased.
- 2) All bids are per lot as numbered in this catalog.
- 3) We reserve the right to withdraw any lot prior to sale.
- 4) All successful bidders shall be billed for postage, handling and insurance.
- 5) R.M. SMYTHE reserves the right to reject any bids not made in good faith and further reserves the right to ban any bidder from participation in its sales for any reason deemed appropriate at our sole discretion.
- 6) A SMYTHE auction bidder expressly waves any claim or right to an accounting, damages or compensation arising out of SMYTHE'S failure to receive or execute any bid due to exclusion from our sales, clerical errors or other causes. No bids will be accepted from any person who has not signed a registration form or a bidder sheet.
- 7) United States coins and currency will not, in conformity with law, be opened at less than the face value.
- 8) No "buy" or "unlimited" bids will be accepted. We will act as agents for all mail bidders in the sale. Mail bids will be opened at the next interval over the second highest bid except where the intrinsic or regular market worth of the item dictates an opening at its fair market value. Floor bidding intervals will have an average increment of about 5% at the discretion of the auctioneer.
- 9) In the case of a tie between a mail bidder on the book and the floor, the mail bidder shall take precedence.
- 10) All bids must be in whole dollar amounts; this includes percentage increases.
- 11) Check your bid sheets carefully. We can not assume any responsibility for errors made in the amount bid or lot numbers listed. Make sure your sheet is signed.
- 12) No minors may participate in our sales. Agents bidding on behalf of others will be held liable if their principals fail to make payment.
- 13) Payment for purchases is to be made in cash upon receipt of invoice. No lots may be taken away unless paid for in full. A late charge of 1½% per month will be charged on the invoice total if payment is not received within 10 days of mailing the invoice. Bidders not known to us are required to deposit 25% of their bids in advance.
- 14) Title does not pass until payment in full is received. SMYTHE reserves the right to await clearance of any check before making delivery.
- 15) If a collection agency attorney is required to collect outstanding accounts, all agency and court costs, witness and attorney fees and all other costs of any kind incurred by SMYTHE shall be borne by the defendant. The signer of a SMYTHE bid sheet or participant in the auction concedes the jurisdiction of the courts of New York State or the U.S. in New York City as SMYTHE alone shall elect. The participant in a SMYTHE auction also assumes both corporate and personal liability for unpaid auction bills.
- 16) New York State sales taxes or other state sales or use taxes shall be levied, as required by law. Dealers and other non residents are reminded that sales tax must be collected unless Form ST-128.1 has been filed properly, under regulations effective 1 December 1982.

- 17) SMYTHE may reopen the bidding on a lot under the following circumstances: 1) SMYTHE has failed to execute correctly a mail bid. 2) A party purchasing the lot on the floor has done so in error. 3) Where a protest is made after the hammer has fallen but before the bidding has commenced on the next lot. 4) Where the auctioneer has determined that he has overlooked a party still bidding on the lot but before the calling of the next lot. 5) At the discretion of the Auctioneer.
- 18) In the event of dispute, the auctioneer's decision is final.

GUARANTEES AND RIGHTS OF RECOVERY

- 19) No price adjustments will be made on the hammer price of a lot whether there is a complaint about the whole lot or only one item in it. The entire lot must be returned if a refund is to be made.
- 20) Persons placing bids are responsible for meeting the maximum amounts represented on their bid sheets. SMYTHE reserves the right to reject frivolous complaints and to take appropriate actions against such bidders under paragraphs 5 and 15 above.
- 21) All material in this catalog is guaranteed to be genuine unless otherwise described.
- 22) No lots may be returned by floor bidders except for non-authenticity.
- 23) Mail bidders may return lots for reasons of non-authenticity or improper description within 5 days of receipt or thirty days from the auction's last day, whichever comes first. Failure to execute this privilege in a timely manner either from a failure to pay promptly or from any other cause shall void it.
- 24) In cases where a question has arisen as to the authenticity of an item, the purchaser must, before settlement day (30 days after the sale), notify SMYTHE of his intention to return the item, confirmed in writing. The item will be examined by a recognized expert; if the item proves authentic, the sale will be consummated. If the item is not authentic, the sale price will be refunded.
- 25) In the event of unsuccessful litigation the plaintiff shall pay SMYTHE'S legal costs, counsel and witness fees and all other costs incurred by it in defense against such suit together with interest on any funds expended at the New York prime rate from the date of actual disbursement.
- 26) The same protections applicable to SMYTHE apply to each and every one of their officers and employees unless they shall be convicted of knowingly selling false or stolen goods.
- 27) SMYTHE assumes no liability for merchandise lost, stolen or damaged while in the possession of a party to whom merchandise has been shipped. The purchaser is solely responsible for the safe keeping and insurance of any items in their possession.
- 28) All accounts are payable to SMYTHE in U.S. funds and remittances must cover the service charges for foreign drafts which shall be added to each invoice. No credit card payments will be received by SMYTHE for auction sales, catalogs or other monies due to SMYTHE.
- 29) The placing of a bid shall constitute full acceptance of the foregoing terms and conditions of sale.

PUBLIC AUCTION

LOTS 1 - 310

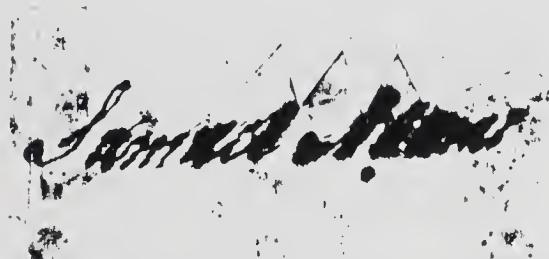

THURSDAY, APRIL 22, 1993 - 4:30 PM Sharp

THE DORSET HOTEL

30 W 54th Street (between 5th & 6th Avenues), New York City

1 ADAMS, JOHN QUINCY (1767-1848) ($375-425)
President of the United States. Signatures of twelve U. S. Representatives from Massachusetts to the 25th Congress headed by Adams who has signed "John Quincy Adams of Quincy", one page, 8vo, Massachusetts, n.d. Other notable signatories include Caleb Cushing (U. S. Attorney General), Levi Lincoln and George N. Briggs (both MA Governors), etc. Fine.

2 ADAMS, SAMUEL (1722-1803) ($400-500)
Signer of the Declaration of Independence; delegate to the first and second Continental Congresses; governor of Massachusetts (thus at signing). Printed DS "Samuel Adams", one page, folio, Boston, July 22, 1796. Interesting document defining how a congressman was elected in the 1700's. Addressed to the Selectmen of Richmond (MA), the document calls for a vote "...for one Representative, that is an Inhabitant of the said District, to represent them in the Congress of the United States of America". Signed by Adams at top left just below the white paper seal of his office. His signature is dark and has bled into the paper. Countersigned by John Avery as secretary. There are minor edge tears and fold splits which have been neatly repaired on verso, seal split and foxing, otherwise in generally good appearance. Must be seen.

3 ANTHONY, SUSAN B. (1820-1906) ($600-700)
American reformer and woman suffrage advocate. ALS, one page, 4to, on the imprinted stationery of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, Rochester, NY, November 13, 1899. To an unidentified female correspondent, Ms. Anthony writes about a photograph taken at the 1895 National Convention in Atlanta, GA, which she was enclosing and adds "...Tell your friend that The Life and Times of S.B.A. - is to be had at Fisher Brown's Book Store in London -- and in that work she will find sundry pictures of S.B.A. - when young as well as when old..." Some foxing, else fine condition.

4 ARTHUR, CHESTER A. (1830-1886) ($800-1000)
President of the United States. ALS "C. A. Arthur", one page, 12mo, on black-bordered mourning stationery, 123 Lex Ave [New York City], June 29, n.y. [probably written after his wife's death in 1880 shortly before his ascendancy to the Presidency upon the violent death of President Garfield]. Boldly penned letter to Geo. Jones concerning an out-of-town trip. "I am glad you invited Mr. Halstead to join us. I will see you before three o'clock tomorrow..." The integral address leaf has been tipped in two places to the first. Accompanied by a bust-length portrait of Arthur engraved by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing. Both pieces are in very fine condition.

5 ARTHUR, CHESTER A. (1830-1886) ($400-500)
President of the United States. Executive Mansion Card Signed as President, 3" x 4". Dark and bold signature. Fine.

George Braque
Robert Motherwell

6 ARTISTS: 20th Century ($400-500)
Signatures on three leather-bound art gallery sign-in books, each 12" x 9-1/2", ca1963-1965. Among the major artists identified include: George Braque, Henri Cartier-Bresson, Robert Motherwell, Mark Rothko, Jasper Johns, Elaine de Kooning, Frank Stella (signed twice), Ad Reinhardt, Helen Frankenthaler, Louise Bourgeois (signed several times), Agam, Paul Davis and Leo Katz. Other signatures in the books are Academy Award actor Joel Grey and actress Kim Novak; philanthropist Lawrence Rockefeller; critics Clement Greenberg, Bernard Langlis, and Barnett Newman; writer Francine de P. Gray; poets Allen Ginsberg and Tuli Kupferberg. There are many other signatures and some have not been identified. Must be seen! Fine.

7 ASTRONAUTS ($1000-1200)

Commemorative FDC Signed by S. Christa McAuliffe, 12mo, imprinted with "Teachers are / the nicest / people!", stamped and postmarked "Kennedy Space Center, FL / Jan / 28 / 1986 (the day the tragic shuttle explosion occurred)". Christa McAuliffe was a high school teacher from Concord, NH, who was to have been the first ordinary citizen in space. Handsomely matted with an unsigned 10x8 full color photo of McAuliffe and "Barbara" in their space suits along with a xerox copy of The New York Times front page, January 29, 1986 issue, featuring a screaming headline "THE SHUTTLE EXPLODES". Framed under glass in a stainless frame, overall size: 17-1/2" x 20". Very fine condition.

8 ASTRONAUTS ($400-500)

PS by Neil A. Armstrong, Michael Collins and Edwin "Buzz" Aldrin, Prime Crew of the 5th Manned Apollo Mission, full color, 8x10, each signed across his image. Shows a half-length photo of the three in their space suits against a large lunar background. Another PS by Charles Conrad, Richard E. Gordon, Jr., and Alan L. Bean of the Apollo-Saturn 12 Mission, full-color, 10x8, signed across each image. Photo shows a full-length profile of the team in their space suits against a lunar craft. Both matted together and framed under glass in a gold-plated metal frame; overall size: 12-1/2" x 20-1/2". Very fine condition.

9 BARTHOLDI, FREDERIC A. (1834-1904) ($350-450)

French sculptor, known for his colossal figures including the Statue of Liberty in New York City. ALS as president of the "Societe Libre des Artistes Francais", on their imprinted stationery, 2pp, with blank integral address leaf, 8vo, Paris, June 4, 1889. Bartholdi informs his unnamed correspondent that he has heard through the official newspaper of the nomination of the Jury of the Beaux-Arts for the Universal Exposition. He reminds him of the petition sent by the artists to the Minister, and then assertively asks for a response, which should include more details. Very fine condition.

Clara Barton

10 BARTON, CLARA (1821-1912) [2]

($500-600)

Founder of the American Red Cross. ALS, 4 full pages, 8vo, Washington, March 23, 1883. To Mrs. Emily Talbot, wife of the prominent Boston surgeon, Boston, MA, concerning certain arrangements for Ms. Barton's interview. In part the letter reads: "Mr. Worthington will conclude from my letter that I refuse to be written up from stray scraps by a person necessarily knowing nothing of me personally - that this would be unjust to everyone, and especially to Miss [Lucy] Larcom. Will you perhaps be so kind as to let Miss Larcom know...that I should be very glad to see her here, and offer such hospitality as I can in a strange city & out of my own home if Mr. Worthington and she think I am worth taking so great pains for - I am sorry you are "wearily" mine; won't the world let you rest a wee bit - I suppose not, it won't let me. I am almost hors de combat..." Dark text and signed in full. With the original holograph addressed envelope, stamped and postmarked. Fine.

11 BASEBALL [4]

($375-450)

Envelopes Signed each by Baseball greats Roger Maris, Harold "Pie" Traynor and George Sisler, all on stamped and postmarked air mail envelopes, dated 1956-59. Also includes an ANS by Dazzy Vance, one page, 3" x 7", n.p., n.d. Mounting remnants along corners. Fine.

12 BASEBALL [4]

($375-425)

Envelopes Signed by Hall of Famers Jackie Robinson, Lefty Grove and Carl Hubbell, each signature on stamped and postmarked air mail envelopes, dated 1956-57. Also includes a 1944 Shibe Park ticket signed by Connie Mack whose 50th Year of Major League Baseball Management was commemorated. All in fine condition.

13 BASKETBALL HALL OF FAMERS

($300-500)

G.B. over the water

14 BEATLES, THE ($1800-2000)

The legendary British singing group considered as rock music's most popular and influential group. Color PS by John Lennon, Paul McCartney, George Harrison and Ringo Starr, 8x10, boldly signed by each member on different occasions (between 1980-91) using a black marker. The photograph depicts an early scene of the group playing, possibly taken during one of their TV appearances. Matted and framed under glass in gilded wooden frame; overall size: 11-1/2" x 15-1/2". Fine. Accompanied by a letter giving information on when and where these autographs were obtained.

16 BEN-GURION, DAVID (1886-1973) ($1200-1500)

Founder and first Prime Minister of Israel. TLS as Prime Minister, in Hebrew, one page, 8vo, on official imprinted letterhead, Jerusalem, December 26, 1955. To General Meir Amit, Commander of the Southern Front, warning him of the enemies' intent to destroy Israel and expressing the country's trust in the Israeli Defense Forces "because it is its only secure fortification". Ben-Gurion closes this letter with an admonition: "Let's not slacken. The time for relaxation has not yet arrived; there is still much work ahead of us." Boldly signed. Two file holes at the blank right margin, otherwise fine. A typewritten English translation is included.

17 BEN-GURION, DAVID ($1200-1500)

TLS as Prime Minister, in Hebrew, one page, 8vo, on his imprinted stationery, Jerusalem, December 10, 1956. To Berl Locker of Jerusalem, expressing his elation at the strong support the public opinion, most journalists and important newspapers in the U.S. have on Israel's actions in the Sinai and its demands for freedom of navigation. Ben-Gurion credits the good news as having come from Senator Jacob Javits of New York. File holes at blank right margin, otherwise in fine condition with a dark bold signature. Comes with a typewritten English translation.

18 BEN-GURION, DAVID (1886-1973) ($600-700)

ALS, in Hebrew, one page, 8vo, on a numbered (#29) ruled stationery, Sde Boker, October 10, 1960. To Moshe Sharett, Jewish leader who served as Prime Minister between Ben-Gurion's two terms, and also as Defense Minister. Despite their political differences over the years, Ben-Gurion extends his best wishes to Sharett on his 60th birthday. Not translated, but a choice letter penned in full by Israel's first great leader! Very fine condition.

15 BECKETT, SAMUEL (1906-1989) [3] ($375-425)

Irish novelist and playwright; awarded the 1969 Nobel Prize for Literature. ANS "Sam Beckett", one page, 12mo, on an attractive French greeting card imprinted with a Monet painting in full color, Paris, December 1977. Beckett wishes a Reverend Forewood "a happy birthday Jan. 2, 1978 and many happy returns..." Excellent condition. An accompanying holograph addressed envelope is included along with a postmarked, French stamped air mail envelope addressed in Beckett's hand to Reverend & Mrs. S. Jackson, Philadelphia, PA.

J Seller

19 BERLIN, IRVING (1888-1988) ($400-500)

Famous Russian-born U.S. composer of classic popular songs. Signed Book: Songs From Irving Berlin's "Alexander's Ragtime Band", 1938, 180pp, bound in a gilt-printed black cover, signed by Berlin in full on the back of the frontispiece. Songs featured include his first great hits "Alexander's Ragtime Band" and Everybody's Doin' It Now, which popularized ragtime music and established his name. Included also are his other hits A Pretty Girl Is Like A Melody, Blue Skies, All Alone, Easter Parade, etc. Fine.

20 BERNSTEIN, LEONARD (1918-1992) ($500-700)

American conductor, pianist and composer. IPS, B&W, 12mo, bust-length right side view of a younger Bernstein. Boldly inscribed and signed by the famed New York Philharmonic conductor on the bottom margin "With all my warmest wishes / and hopes for joy in music - / Leonard Bernstein". Comes with a typewritten copy of the West Side Story, Act I, Scene I, four paragraphs, one page, 4to, inscribed and signed by four members of the cast. Matted together and framed under glass in a gold plated steel frame; overall size: 21" x 12-1/2". Very fine condition.

21 BIDDLE, NICHOLAS (1786-1844) ($500-700)

American banker and financier; president of the Bank of U. S. and its leading advocate for rechartering, which became a major issue during the 1832 Presidential election. Partly printed DS "N. Biddle", one page, 4-1/4" x 9-1/2", Philadelphia, March 6, 1832. Handsome vignetted Bank of the United States Third Exchange draft for £1222.3.1 issued by the bank's English agent, the Baring Brothers & Company in London, to William Findlay, Treasurer of the Mint. Signed by Biddle as president and endorsed by Findlay on the verso. Minor water staining at upper left and edge chinks at right, otherwise fine condition with clear dark signatures.

22 BIDDLE, NICHOLAS [2] ($600-750)

Two ALSs, each one page, with integral address leaf (one holograph), Bank of the United States [Philadelphia, PA], May 7, 1830 & August 5, 1830 respectively. Marked "Private". Both letters are addressed to Wm. B. Rochester Esq., Prest. Off. District & Department, Buffalo, NY, and concerns the materials to be used for Rochester's new "Banking House" and the funds available for his use. Fine.

23 BIERCE, AMBROSE (1842-1914) ($1200-1400)

American journalist and short-story writer; fate unknown after disappearing into Mexico. ALS, 3pp, 8vo, Washington, D.C., March 27, 1910. To "Dear Howes", concerning his itinerary. In part: "This is my last letter from this village - I go on Wednesday to New York...I must go to Kingston, Jamaica. It's a fool reason and I'd be ashamed to tell it, but it is more the less controlling...You'll find a lot of "rot" in Vol. II of "The Great English Story Writers". I have yet to see a collection of tales by living writers that was not three-fourths stuff...No, I think I have not seen notices of Pollard's book in the "Nation" nor in the "Evening Post". But the book has been much "noticed"..." Signed in full. Fine.

24 BIGGS, RONNIE ($375-500)

Guinness Book of Record's "longest outstanding fugitive", dubbed by Scotland Yard as "The Brain of the Great Train Robbery" (1923) pulling off the largest theft in history. Rare Original Sketch Signed in full by Biggs. Strongly accomplished using a ball point pen on white 8-1/2" x 7-1/2" paper, the drawing is supposedly that of Her Majesty's Royal Mail Train depicted by a locomotive linked to a single car labeled "MONEY." Biggs' large signature is affixed just below the drawing. Excellent condition. Scotland Yard had caught Biggs and kidnapped him twice in separate parts of the world, but could not bring him back to England to finish his 30-year prison term. He now lives in Brazil under "conditional liberty" while legal details are being worked out.

25 BOGART, HUMPHREY (1899-1957) ($450-550)
Academy Award winning American actor. Dark and bold Full Signature on white paper, about 1-1/2" x 4-1/2", matted with a 10x8 B&W half-length picture of Bogart. Handsomely framed under glass, overall size: 21-1/2" x 17-1/2". Very fine condition.

Carter Braxton

26 BRAXTON, CARTER (1736-1797) ($650-750)
American Revolutionary leader; Signer of the Declaration of Independence. MDS "Carter Braxton" twice, large folio, King William County, May 3, 1763. Indenture signed by Braxton in full as executor of George Braxton. On the back of the document Braxton has once again affixed his dark full signature acknowledging the receipt of One thousand eight hundred and fifty six pounds & four pence currency money of Virginia from William Roane "bearing the consideration Expressed in the within Indenture..." The document is very fragile and there are significant splits, otherwise complete with dark full signatures.

27 BRITISH NOTABLES [8] ($275-325)
CHARLES BURNEY (1757-1817), Famous classical scholar and son of the composer. ALS, one page, integral holograph address leaf, 4to, February 20, 185. "Let me entreat you not to come down to Deptford..." Accompanied by biographical clippings. HENRY WILLIAM PAGET, First Marquess of Anglesey. ALS in 3rd person, one page, integral leaf, November 30, 1849, giving compliments. With three engravings and biographical notes pasted into a folder. Wellington's Cavalry commander at Waterloo, Lord Paget lost a leg in battle which was buried separately in a commemorative garden. ALsS are tipped in folder. Fine.

*I am dear reader
Truly yours
W C Bryant*

28 BRYANT, WILLIAM CULLEN ($375-500)
Autograph draft of a letter signed "W. C. Bryant", one page, 8vo, Roslyn, Jan. 16, 1863. To Mrs. Polletz, whose son had been killed during the Civil War: "My wife is unable in consequence of her accident to write to you for the purpose of saying how much she sympathizes with you and Mr. Polletz and the rest of your family in the great affliction which has overtaken you. I act as her amanuensis, and take this occasion to express to you the sorrow which we all feel...Whatever consolation can arise from the thought that your son died in the cause of his country, and in what he believed to be the way of duty, is yours..." One paragraph has been deleted by Bryant and he has made a few other revisions to the text. This draft is written on the verso of a printed announcement concerning a farewell dinner for John Frederick Kensett, headed "Century Rooms, April 24th, 1861." Waterstained, otherwise in good condition.

James Buchanan

29 BUCHANAN, JAMES (1791-1868) ($850-1000)
President of the United States. Partly printed DS as Secretary of State, one page, legal folio, Washington, July 27, 1847. Very early form of passport issued to George Endicott. Printed seal of the United States on top center and the State Department at bottom center. Rubber stampings and entries of places visited on verso. Minor fold junction holes and scattered foxing, otherwise in good condition. Buchanan's signature is clear and dark.

30 [BURR, AARON] ($375-450)
Interesting letter addressed to Col. Aaron Burr, 2pp, with separate docketed address leaf, 4to, Baltimore, MD, November 30, 1814, written by Robert G. Harper, a Baltimore lawyer apparently hired by Burr for counsel. "Of the three persons connected in the transaction to which your letter of the 14th relates Marche is the only one within reach. Keene is in Cadiz and insolvent...Marche is a money broker, about whose situation it is very difficult to form an accurate opinion, but...he is...very far from being able to pay $6000, and probably has not tangible property to a third of that amount...I do not think it by any means clear that an action could be supported by you. The act of limitation cannot affect you, because you live out of the state...But on a view of the whole case I cannot advise you an action..." Small corner clipping, marginal fraying and slight browning otherwise fine.

Please note that a 10% buyers charge will be added to each lot purchased on all purchases.

31 BUSH, GEORGE (1924-) ($500-600)
President of the United States. Handsome Limited Edition Print Signed by Bush and the 10 members of his crew, colored, 20" x 29", #564 of only 1000 copies, with Certificate of Authenticity. Then Lieutenant (JG.) George Bush flew a TBM Avenger with Torpedo Squadron 51 in WWII. His group was assigned to a light aircraft carrier. They flew during intense combat in the South Pacific. Captured in a striking painting by Robert Taylor, noted aviation artist, is a scene depicting Bush's squadron returning to their ship after a combat strike. Beautifully reproduced, this magnificent limited print would be excellent for framing. Superb condition.

32 CAMERON, SIMON (1799-1889) ($400-500)
American financier and politician; controlled the Republican political machine in Pennsylvania. Classic PS "Simon Cameron" on the decorative mounting beneath his image, sepia, 13" x 10". The image depicts a three-quarter half-length profile of a grey-haired Cameron in formal business attire, seated. The mounting bears the imprint of Broadbent & Taylor, Philadelphia, PA. Framed under glass, overall size: 20-3/4" x 16-3/4".

Albert Camus

33 CAMUS, ALBERT (1913-1960) ($600-700)
French novelist, essayist and playwright; awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1957. ALS "Albert Camus", in French, one page, 4to, on watermarked paper, "Cabris / (Alpes Maritimes)", February 24, n.y. Camus was under treatment outside Paris when he wrote this letter to an unnamed correspondent concerning some secretarial work which he may have available upon his return. Neatly written and in fine condition. With a typewritten English translation.

Albert Camus

34 CANOVA, ANTONIO (1757-1822) ($600-700)
Italian sculptor. ALS, in Italian, 2pp, 4to, with integral holograph addressed leaf, Rome, January 19, 1821. To J. S. Matthias, Naples, Canova writes: "I am grateful for the kind gift you made me of the edition of Liceti Nostri, chosen by you and printed with the Naples types, for those of noble heart, like yourself, an unwearying lover of our Italian literature. These signs of your particular benevolence, that you constantly bestow on me, increase more and more my feelings of respect and thanks; the more sincere they are, as I feel I have so much less in comparison with yourself. I beg you to continue to manifest towards me your kind affection..." Slight foxing and a 4cm slash tear at upper right not affecting dark text or full signature. There is a small piece missing at the right edge, otherwise in generally very good condition.

35 CARNegie, ANDREW (1835-1919) [2] ($400-500)
Scottish-born American industrialist and philanthropist. ALS, 3pp, 12mo, on his address-imprinted stationery, New York City, January 27, 1902. To J. H. Johnston Esq., Carnegie writes: "I shall place Whitman's copy of Burns with the very choicest gems in my library at Skibo or here in New York...I have placed your kind note inside which shall remain with it. / I think I told you how Whitman's Essay on Burns went to my heart. It ranks with Carlyle's or any other - Whitman was Titanic..." Boldly penned and signed in full. Below his signature, Carnegie penned a three-line postscript and signed it with his initials. Interesting letter which depicts Carnegie's penchant for poetry. Mentioned by Carnegie in this letter are three of the big names in poetry, namely: Walt Whitman, Robert Burns and Thomas Carlyle. With the original holograph addressed envelope, stamped and postmarked. Fine.

36 CARTER, JIMMY (1924-) ($900-1200)
President of the United States. ALS as Governor, one page, 8vo, on his official letterhead, Atlanta, GA, May 14, 1971. To Mrs. Green, "a fellow public servant and a Democrat" praises her for her speech. Carter writes: "Your speech was great - intelligent, factual, informative and inspirational. / It is reassuring to know that you are instrumental in leading our Congress in devising methods for improving the educational systems of our country..." Boldly penned & signed in full. Fine.

All in very fine condition.

40 CARTOONISTS [5] ($400-500)
HANK KETCHAM. Dennis The Menace Sunday Comic Art Pages, four separate pages each with different sketches and Dennis anecdotes, all drawn by Ketcham in pencil on 4to onion skin paper, but only one is inscribed and signed by him in ink. With a letter of authenticity from the Hank Ketcham Enterprises. Fine.

41 CARTOONISTS [3] ($400-500)
 Original Art Drawings of the Invaders featuring Captain America, three Marvel Comics Art Pages, 15" x 10", pen and ink on board, 1975-77. Unsigned, docketed on verso. All in fine condition.

Please see Lot 129 RUBE GOLDBERG.

42 CARUSO, ENRICO (1873-1921) ($450-550)
 Celebrated Italian opera singer; one of the best-known operatic voices of all time. Handsome PS, 5-1/4" x 3-1/4", silver-printed postcard photograph showing a half-length three-quarter profile of the great tenor, suavely attired in a suit with vest. Boldly signed in full across his image. Contrast is good even though parts of his signature pass through dark areas of his clothing. Fine.

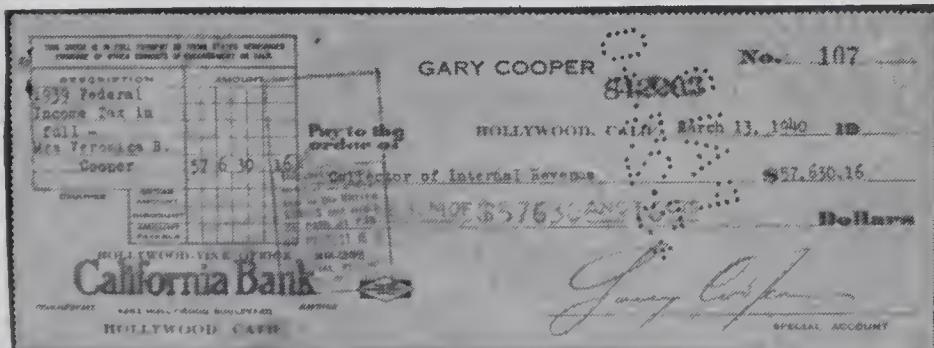

43 CHAPLIN, CHARLIE (Sir Charles Spencer; 1889-1977) ($500-600)
British comedian, actor and director; knighted in 1975. Extraordinary $1 Silver Certificate Signed "Charlie Chaplin / Los Angeles / 14th 1918 / Blue Coon", diagonally across the face at the center, 3" x 7-1/2". Part of the signature and inscriptions are on a darker portion where the eagle vignette is centrally located, but strongly accomplished, bold and legible. There is slight soiling, otherwise in fine condition and quite unusual. Blue Coon was at the time one of the most famous night clubs in Los Angeles. Must be seen!

44 CHASE, SAMUEL (1741-1811) ($350-400)
Signer of the Declaration of Independence and Associate Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court. Partly printed DS, 3pp, 8vo, Baltimore, MD, December 31, 1795. As Chief Judge of Maryland, Samuel Chase certifies to having administered an oath as required by "the Act of Assembly...An Act for Naturalization". Boldly signed by Chase in full at bottom right of first page. The last two pages contain handwritten notarization re Chase's signature and authority to administer such oaths. This document has been tape repaired in an attempt to put major loose pieces together. However, there are still remaining splits and tears, of which one has affected letter "u" of Samuel, otherwise the signature is strong, dark and clear. Sold as is, must be seen!

Watermarked check imprinted with Clark Gable's name on top and signed by him in full. Vertical fold in the middle with the usual minuscule hole cancellations, not affecting Gable's large dark signature. Fine.

49 GETTY, JEAN PAUL (1892-1976) ($450-600)
American businessman and oil tycoon; reportedly the world's wealthiest man in the 1960's. Famed for his miserliness, he had a pay telephone installed at his 72-room English mansion for his guests' use. Check Signed "J. Paul Getty", drawn from a Chase Manhattan Bank in London, England, October 10, 1967. Fulfilled in another's hand and made payable to the Royal College of Nursing for £8.80. Rubber stamped with the usual tiny cancellation holes not affecting Getty's strong, dark and bold signature. Fine.

50 GRIFFITH, D. W. (1875-1948) ($500-600)
American motion picture producer and director; considered as one of the most important figures in the history of American film and one of the most influential in the development of world cinema as an art. Signed Check: Bank of America, Hollywood, CA, August 27, 1944, made payable to W. R. Oglesby for $200. There is a slight ink see-through from rubber stamp cancellations on the verso, but do not adversely affect the general condition and Griffith's strong, dark signature.

Please see Lot 142 for a HARRISON, BENJAMIN check.

51 VAN BUREN, MARTIN (1782-1862) ($2800-3500)

55 CHESTERTON, GILBERT K. (1874-1936) ($1250-1600)
English journalist and writer. Author's Typescript Signed twice (once in pencil), entitled "Beaconsfield - an Introduction / by G. K. Chesterton", 4pp, 4to, n.p., n.d. Fascinating historical essay, with a number of corrections (mostly punctuation) and one addition in Chesterton's hand, which stresses the importance of Beaconsfield in the Middle Ages as a market-place and stage-post on the main road from London to Oxford. "The heart of Beaconsfield is the old-cross roads, which make visible and vivid its old character and function in the countryside...it was a famous coaching stage, the first...on the road to Oxford; and that it was a true market-place used for markets and fairs..." Chesterton lived in Beaconsfield from 1909 to 1935 and this essay may have been written as an introduction to a guide-book of Beaconsfield. Slightly worn; frayed and with some browning to the edges.

56 CHURCHILL, Sir WINSTON S. (1874-1965) ($1200-1400)
British statesman; Prime Minister and Nobel Prize winning author. T.I.S., one page, 4to, on stationery imprinted with his address, Chartwell, Westerham, Kent, April 12, 1930. To John W. Green Esq., Churchill writes: "How very kind of you to dedicate your book "Modern Roadmaking" to me. I hope to read it at the first convenient opportunity, but at present I am very much occupied." Churchill had filled in the salutation as well as the closing and has signed this letter in full. There are minor fold splits and creases, otherwise in good condition.

57 CHURCHILL, Sir WINSTON S. (1874-1965) ($800-1000)
British Prime Minister, statesman and author. Correspondence Card Signed "Yours faithfully, / Winston S. Churchill", 3" x 4-1/2", n.d., address at 105 Mount Street, W. is imprinted on top. Light fold crease and mounting traces on verso, otherwise in fine condition and dark inscriptions. Comes with an unsigned 12mo B&W bust length picture postcard of Churchill.

58 CHURCHILL, Sir WINSTON S. ($650-750)

60 CIVIL WAR [10]

($500-750)

Interesting group of letters written by Major James Biddle, Commandant at the Army of Potomac Headquarters, to his wife in Philadelphia, between 1862-64. Most of the letters are long, intimate and expresses Major Biddle's longing to be with his wife as well as his frustrations over the course of the war. "I was also at General Burnside's Head Quarters - I there saw Bob Potter who was a College Mate of mine, he is now a Brig. Genl. and commands a Divn. under Burnside...I received last evening your letter...It is a great comfort to me always having such a good news from home - I trust before very long thus rebellion will be ended, and peace and happiness be once more restored to our Country. You are my all, and I long for the time when I can have you by my side never to be parted again..." Taken from his July 29, 1864 letter, it sets the tone of the rest of the letters. Details about his activities, troop movements, and names of several important Civil War Generals, like Meade and Hunt, are also mentioned. Three letters come with its original holograph addressed envelope, stamped and postmarked. Included in this group is Major Biddle's appointment letter as Commandant of the Potomac Army Headquarters, under Special Order #24, signed by Assistant Adjutant General S. Williams, January 27, 1864. Two letters in this group are letters from his wife's sister. All in fine condition.

BACKGROUND ON THE OFFICIAL WHITE HOUSE LINCOLN - GRANT - SHERMAN PORTRAIT

66 SHERMAN, WILLIAM T. / GRANT, ULYSSES S. ($18,000-20,000)

Remarkable ALS by Union General William Sherman to General Grant who penned his reply on facing integral leaf, one page, 8vo, ruled stationery, dated Washington, Jan 17, n.y. [ca1865]. Sherman asks Grant about a request by Healy (George P. A. Healy), a famous artist who painted Lincoln's official portrait which hangs in the White House. Sherman's letter reads: "Healy of Chicago wants to paint your portrait to make a picture of yourself, Mr. Lincoln & myself as we sat in the Steamer at City Point. Are you willing - What shall I answer Healy..." And Grant's reply reads: "I have sat so often for portraits that I had determined not to sit again. The object Mr. Healy has is such however that I may change my mind in this case but before giving a positive answer I will ask when it will be convenient for him and me both...(signed) U. S. G." Grant did agree to sit and the resulting portrait, entitled The Peacemakers, hangs in the White House today. Further information from a publication of the White House Historical Society is available upon request.

Twain orders concert tickets and expresses his seating preference. "Please send me, per bearer, 2 seats for the Vokes for Wednesday evening, 3 seats for Theo. Thomas's, Friday. In both instances I would prefer to sit fully 30 feet from the stage. I would much rather be a little too far from the stage than a little too close to it." Slightly soiled and mounted on an album leaf with newspaper clippings on verso. Boldly penned and signed. Ideal for framing and/or display.

72 CLEVELAND, GROVER (1837-1908) ($600-800)

President of the United States. ALS as President, one page, with blank integral address leaf, small 8vo, on Executive Mansion, Washington, January 4, 1895. To J. Stanley Brown Esq., thanking him for the beautiful bear skin he sent the President. "...It is the finest one I ever saw, and will serve as an ornament in my home..." Interesting content. Fine.

73 CLEVELAND, GROVER (1837-1908) [2] ($450-550)

President of the United States. DS as President, one page, folio, Washington, July 14, 1885. Appointment of Martin A. Barnett as Postmaster at Madison, Jefferson County, IN.

Cleveland's full signature is clean and dark. Also signed by Postmaster General William Villas. With gold embossed seal and red ribbon attached. Minor edge splits along folds, otherwise in good condition. Includes a Bureau of Engraving and Printing engraving of President Cleveland. Excellent pair for framing and/or display.

My Dear Reeve,
I have a few moments to spare before returning - today - and I shall occupy them in congratulating you on your triumph at Brighton. A true completer
and a manly moment.

74 COLLINS, WILKIE (1824-1889) ($600-700)

British novelist; one of the first and greatest mystery writers. ALS "W.C.", 4pp, 8vo, on black-bordered mourning stationery imprinted with his Portman Square address, London, April 25, 1873. To the actor, [Wybert] Reeve, congratulating him on his "triumph at Brighton", being his performance in the play version of Collin's The Woman in White. "...A more complete and a more honourable recognition of the impression which you have produced it is impossible to imagine. I cannot tell you how disappointed I am at missing the chance of seeing you. But there is no hope for me. I have to direct everything, and (excepting the cases of the principal artists) I have to teach everybody at the Theater. The rehearsals of The New Magdalen must go on without a day's intermission - or I shall not have the play fit to produce next month. Such weary and incessant work as is now forced on me has its compensating side. It leaves me but few opportunities of thinking of my loss..." Collins "loss" may refer to the death of his brother which probably accounts for the mourning stationery. Strip of glue staining, otherwise in fine condition.

75 COLONIAL GOVERNORS [3] ($750-1000)

WILLIAM MOULTRIE (1730-1805), South Carolina Governor. DS "Wm. Moultrie", 2pp, laid paper, folio, Columbia, SC, July 1, 1793. Grant for 1000 acres of land to Benjamin Pearce. Fold splits, tears and soiling, but dark clean signature. EDWARD TELFAIR (1735-1807), Continental Congressman, Georgia Governor. DS "Edw. Telfair", one page, folio, on laid paper, Washington, GA, May 11, 1793. Grant for 1000 acres of land to Robert Middleton. Fold junction holes and tears, soiled on the verso. Large dark signature. GEORGE MATHEWS (1739-1812), Georgia Governor. DS "Geo. Mathews", one page, folio, on laid paper, Washington, GA, October 28, 1794. Grant to Richmond Dawson for 1000 acres of land. Minor fold junction holes and creases. Bold dark signature.

Joseph Conrad

76 CONRAD, JOSEPH (1857-1924)

($1200-1400)

Polish-born English writer. TLS, 1-2/3pp, 4to, on his embossed and imprinted letterhead, Kent, England, May 3, 1919. Conrad had filled in the salutation to "My dear Mr. Adams". In part this interesting letter reads: "...our boy has come through this war alive and is now with us, having been discharged out of the army about a month ago. We are touched by your remembering that we had a son out there and by your feeling reference to it. Your letter has made me feel ashamed again after the lapse of years for the utterly unnecessary heat of argument which I displayed that afternoon when you and I went for a drive in the Ford and discussed the question of individual liberty. I remember when I confessed it to my wife afterwards with much compunction how shocked she was, but you have been extremely good about it. Your candid letter was very pleasant reading...mainly because my point of view has become practically demonstrated to you. Pray do not believe that I am triumphing, for there is much to say for the other - I may call it the ethically utilitarian attitude. In fact it is the undeniable strength of that attitude that make it so exasperating to the objectors of my sort. The foundation of my argument was really the feeling that there is more than one kind of utility, whether in the moral or in the material sphere..." Conrad has made several holograph corrections and additions throughout. Minor tape repairs, otherwise in good condition. Excellent content.

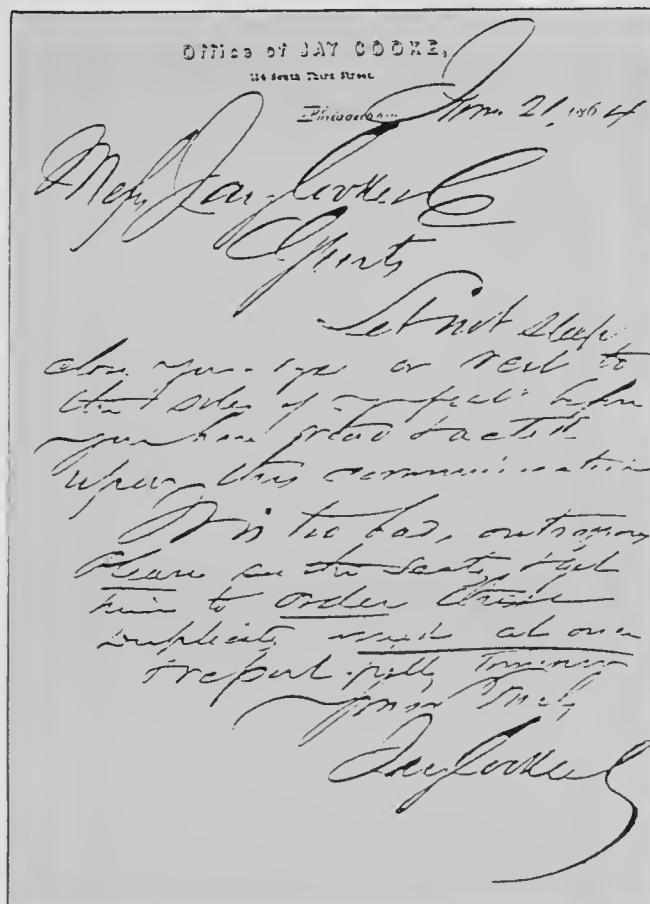

New York, May 30 - 1867

Dear Doctor

*Yours Respectfully
Ezra Cornell*

77 COOKE, JAY (1821-1905)

($400-500)

American financier. ALS, one page, small 4to, on his lined stationery, Philadelphia, January 21, 1864. Interesting letter in which Cooke addresses the "Gents" of his firm, Jay Cooke & Co., and writes: "Let not sleep close your eyes or rest [come] to the soles of your feet before you have read and acted upon this communication. / It is too bad, outrageous. Please see the secty & get him to order these duplicates issued at once & report fully tomorrow." Boldly written and signed in full. Cooke was fiscal agent of the U.S. Treasury. He marketed government bonds financing the Civil War. January 21, 1864, the date this letter was written, was the last day on which the government's five-twenty bonds, which he had done so much to popularize, could be sold to the public. It is interesting to surmise the frenetic events of that day which led to his writing this strongly worded letter. Fine.

78 CORNELL, EZRA (1807-1874)

($600-700)

American financier and philanthropist; organized the Western Union Telegraph Company and a founder of the Cornell University in Ithaca, NY. ALS, 3pp, 8vo, on the vignette-imprinted stationery of the Astor House, New York, May 30, 1867. Important business correspondence to Doctor J. Swinburn in which Cornell writes: "...I desire to see you in reference to a telegraph office at your head-quarters at Coney Island when you get the quarantine [sic] establishment removed there. It is desirable for the general business interest of the country as well as the commercial interest of the City that the "Western Union Telegraph Co." should have an office most convenient for receiving the earliest news by ships arriving at the Port of New York, and an arrangement between you as the representative of the Quarantine [sic] Commissioners and the State, and the W. U. Tel. Co. can be made mutually beneficial to both - Thus only can the Public interest be subserved and private speculation in the commercial news of the country prevented. Our company act[s] in harmony in this matter with the Associated Press of the city & country, and the wires of our Company are the only ones that extend to all parts of the country..." Interesting letter showing Cornell's direct involvement in the promotion of the Western Union Telegraph Company. Signed in full. Very fine condition.

79 COTTEN, JOSEPH (1905-1991)

($335-375)

American actor. Signed Photograph of Cotten, B&W, 10x8, double matted with unsigned 12mo color pictures of posters used to promote his two famous films, Citizen Kane and The Magnificent Ambersons, both co-starred with and directed by Orson Welles. Fine condition and ready for framing. Overall size: 20" x 16".

80 CRANE, HART (1899-1932) ($750-850)

American poet. ALS "Hart", one page, 12mo, Paris, March 5, 1929. Nicely penned on the message side of an early Paris picture postcard to Samuel Loverman, Rowfand Book Shop, New York City. "Still waiting for some word from you! Jack Taylor, freshly arrived, is staying at my hotel. Also met Forrest Anderson, who manages to live here somehow and who haunts the cafes. Yes, I'm more than enthusiastic. Never want to leave. Such grace, such intelligence, such courtesy! Whoever thinks the French to be decadent just doesn't know... You should see the Greek vases in the Louvre!" Minor cracks and small corner chinks at right, otherwise in good condition. Dark text and signature. Stamped and postmarked.

81 DANA, RICHARD HENRY, JR. (1815-1882) ($400-500)

American sailor, writer, lawyer and statesman; counsel for U.S. in treason proceedings against Jefferson Davis. ALS "Rich. H. Dana Jr.", 3pp, 8vo, Boston, February 5, 1861. Excellent political letter to William M. Evarts, noted lawyer and statesman. In part the letter reads: "I am pained & mortified at the result of the New York election. For yourself, personally, I hardly know which was best. The Senate is a high power for the exertion of talents & patriotism; & you would distinguish yourself for both...as you are young for so high a post, it is not a question of now or never, but of now or hereafter. But I am mortified that you should be defeated...and defeated by such a man as [Horace] Greeley. The only consolation is that Greeley is defeated...we are saved the disgust of seeing Horace Greeley in the Senate. If that had happened, I should have put my mouth in the dust..." Interesting political commentary! Fine.

82 DAVIS, JEFFERSON (1808-1889) ($400-500)

President of the Confederate States of America. Clipped Signature "Respectfully / Jefferson Davis" possibly from a larger letter, about 2" x 4", dark and boldly accomplished in black ink. Double matted (light blue and gold) with a color reproduction featuring Davis and his generals on horses, and handsomely framed under glass in a gilded wooden frame. Overall size: 13" x 22". Fine.

83 DICKENS, CHARLES (1812-1870) [2] ($500-600)

84 DICKENS, CHARLES ($1200-1400)

ALS, one page, small 8vo, Devonshire Terrace, London, March 7, 1844. To Edmund Fry Esq., Dickens writes: "I am very much obliged to you for your courteous letter and for the opportunity of perusing the enclosed; which has afforded me extreme amusement. I should greatly like to be acquainted with the writer. As a Public Speaker, he must be invaluable..." Slight foxing, otherwise in very good condition. Bold and dark full signature and handwriting.

85 DICKENS, CHARLES ($500-600)

ALS (in 3rd person), one page, small 8vo, Tavistock House, Tavistock Square, Saturday, 23 October 1852. "Mr. Charles Dickens presents his compliments to Mrs. Hopkins, and in reply to her note - which he finds on his return to town - wishes to express his regret that his vote has long been promised." Slight ink spotting, and mounting traces on blank verso, else fine.

86 DIETRICH, MARLENE (1901-1992) ($325-400)

German-born American actress and cabaret star. PS, B&W, 8x10, showing Dietrich and Herbert Marshall in a scene from Blonde Venus (1932). Boldly signed by the legendary actress across at left. Comes with an unsigned picture in color of the poster used to promote the film. In this German poster Dietrich was "touched up" reshaping her slender hips and thighs to increase her resemblance to the Venus de Milo. Double-matted in matching colors. Overall size: 16" x 20". Attractive and ready for framing. Fine.

87 DISNEY, WALT (1901-1966) ($800-1000)

American animator, motion-picture producer and executive; creator of Mickey Mouse and Disneyland. Bold Signature strongly accomplished in pencil, about 2-1/2" x 4-1/2", matted under glass with an unsigned 10x8 B&W photo of Walt Disney and Mickey Mouse. Framed in gilded wooden frame; overall size: 22" x 18". Very fine condition.

88 DISNEY, WALT (1901-1966) ($800-1000)

American animator, motion-picture producer and executive; creator of Mickey Mouse and Disneyland. Full Signature on a 2-3/4" x 5" card, dark and boldly accomplished. Fine.

89 DISNEY, WALT

($3500-4500)

Charming Mickey Mouse Drawing Signed "BEST WISHES / Walt Disney", boldly accomplished in gray charcoal crayon on 4to card by the legend himself. Excellent condition.

90 DONIZETTI, GAETANO (1797-1848)

($2400-2800)

Italian operatic composer. ALS "G. Donizetti", in Italian..one page, with integral holograph address leaf, 4to, Naples, May 3, 1829. To Oella [Nanna] Donna of Rome, Donizetti writes: "So you finally remember me! Your last letter was so late and so cold that it made me believe that I had lost your friendship. I was searching within myself for the blame, and thought I could find the explanation in the secret of marriage(?)...but I was mistaken. You are as good and amiable as ever...I am enclosing herewith three little songs. The reason I haven't had time to write more is because of the on-going rehearsals of an old opera of mine which requires some re-writing. It is entitled Elizabeth at Kenilworth Castle and is due to be performed July 6th at the San Carlo opera house. Mr. Cartoni will embellish it, and Sigtetto will know how to make it entertaining...I wish you all happiness...If you answer me, I will compose more songs for you..." Interesting content as Donizetti evidently once had romantic feelings towards this woman. Fine condition.

91 DORRANCE, JOHN & MARY

($350-450)

Father of John Dorrance (1873-1930), the originator of canned soup industry; president of Campbell Soup Company. Large handsome deed on parchment, 18-1/2" x 24-1/2", signed by John Dorrance (twice) and his wife conveying a piece of property located in Bucks County, PA, to the Philadelphia & Trenton Railroad Company for and in consideration of $1250, duly notarized in Bucks County, PA, September 28, 1863. Folded, otherwise in excellent condition.

Please note that a 10% buyers charge will be added to each lot purchased on all purchases.

92 DOUGLAS, STEPHEN (1813-1861) [2] ($450-525)
American politician, affectionately called the "Little Giant"; narrowly defeated by Lincoln as the Democratic nominee to the U.S. Presidential election. ADS "S. A. Douglas", one page, 4to, n.p., n.d. Mortgage foreclosure decree in the case of Tillsen & Pitkin vs. Kimball, Adams County, IL. With a steel engraving of Douglas. Fine.

CREATOR OF SHERLOCK HOLMES

93 DOYLE, Sir ARTHUR CONAN (1859-1930) ($300-500)
British physician and writer. ALS "A. Conan Doyle", one page, small 8vo, on printed letterhead of The Psychic Book Shop, Library & Museum, London, March 10, 1928. Sir Doyle thanks an unidentified lady correspondent for her letters and photo. "...If ever we can send you or your friends any psychic literature command us. We do all we can to throw out the seed. I remember Miss S. She was a woman of strong character but no soul..." In later years, Doyle championed and wrote books on spiritualism including History of Spiritualism (1926). Interesting letter. Minor fold tears expertly repaired; professionally restored.

94 DOYLE, Sir ARTHUR CONAN (1859-1930) ($1300-1750)
Original Holograph Manuscript Signed, one page, 8vo, n.p., n.d. [ca1900]. Entitled "A First Impression", this manuscript reads: "It was only Smith-Darrien's brigade marching into Bloemfontein, but if it could have passed, just as it was, down Piccadilly and the Strand it would have driven London crazy...Who could conceive who has seen the grim soldiers of peace that he could so quickly transform himself into this grim virile barbarian. Bulldog faces, hawk faces, hungry wolf faces - every kind of face except a weak one. Here and there a reeking pipe - here and there a man who smiled..." Signed "A. Conan Doyle", at lower right, but crossed through. Two tiny edge nicks at upper left, few pinholes, and small traces of paper tape remnants on verso, otherwise in very good condition. Written for, and published in the April 6, 1900 issue of The Friend [Bloemfontein, South Africa]. A copy of this manuscript is featured in Julian Ralph's book War's Brighter Side. In a cloth folding case.

Engraved Resolution Signed by Thomas Edison, Charles Edison (son) along with four others comprising the Board of Directors of the Thomas A. Edison, Inc., one page, integral blank leaf, 4to, West Orange, NJ, November 3, 1922. Adopted at a special meeting convened to discuss the passing of a fellow official, Edward E. Davidson, it was resolved "that we, the Board of Directors of this Company, give expression to our feelings of heartfelt sorrow on this occasion of his death; that we extend our most sincere condolence to the bereaved family, in this, their sad affliction..." Excellent condition and dark signatures.

100 EDISON, THOMAS A. / EDISON, CHARLES ($1000-1200)
 Typewritten DS "Thos A Edison" and "Charles Edison", 3-1/2 separate pages, 4to, West Orange, NJ, June 30, 1926. Minutes of a Meeting of the Board of Directors of the Edison Storage Battery Company resolving several business matters including the opening of an account with Seaboard National Bank in New York City, the amending of prices for the company's materials in Great Britain and Ireland, and the subleasing of the third and fourth floors of the building leased by the company from the American Tobacco Company in New York City. Aside from the Edisons, seven more directors have signed this document. Fine.

NEW INVENTION RECORDS McKINLEY'S VICTORY OVER WM. JENNINGS BRYAN

101 EDISON, THOMAS A. ($2000-2500)
 Unusual ANS "Thos A Edison", in pencil, one page, 8vo, on onionskin paper, [New Jersey], dated "1:30 AM Nov 4 - [18]96". In full, the text reads: "Latest returns indicate the Election of 8 Rep Congressmen six rep senator 45 assemblymen - McKinley carries state by at least 50000" As Edison's first patent was granted in 1869 for an electrical vote recording machine, it is highly probable that the note was his transcription of election results coming in over such an invention. A tiny tack hole at top left corner, otherwise in fine condition.

106 ELIOT, THOMAS STEARNS (1888-1965) ($450-550)

American-born English poet, dramatist and editor. TLS "T. S. Eliot", one page, 4to, on imprinted letterhead of Faber and Faber Limited, Publishers, London, England, May 11, 1960. To Ms. Elizabeth Barber, The League of Dramatists, London, concerning projected stage and TV productions of his play The Elder Statesman. "...I should be glad if Mr. Sherek could have a reasonable extension in the hope of arranging a Broadway production after the B.B.C. Television of the play with Eric Portman...Mr. Sherek was hoping that he might be prepared to undertake the play with a suitable cast on Broadway. I believe that the American manager named Charles Adams is in on this too...Mr. Sherek has sent me a copy of a letter...giving reasons why it would not be advisable to let C.B.C. televise THE ELDER STATEMAN...and it does seem to me that as long as there is any possibility of the play being actually produced in New York it would be undesirable to entrust it to what might be a very inferior television production. Staple holes at top left, otherwise in fine condition. Very fine content and signature.

103 EISENHOWER, DWIGHT D. (1890-1969) / CLARK, MARK W. (1896-1984) ($350-450)

110 FAULKNER, WILLIAM (William Cuthbert Faulkner; 1897-1962) [2] ($3000-4000)

American novelist; awarded the 1950 Nobel Prize for Literature. ALS "Faulkner", in French and English, one page, about 5-1/4" x 6-3/4", on stationery of "Albergo Palazzo & Ambasciatori / Roma", Italy, February 8, 1954. At the time this letter was written, Faulkner had just finished writing his Pulitzer Prize winning A Fable and was in Europe for business and relaxation. Faulkner was very popular in Europe and idolized by many especially the French youth. In this letter, he writes to Monique Salomon concerning arrangements to be made about forwarding letters to a hotel in Cairo. He writes amusingly in a mixture of French and English that he must work and suffer although his heart dreams constantly towards "April en France encore". He ends the letter "I love you all, Faulkner."

*My dear Dr. Prince,
very truly your friend,
Cyrus W. Field.*

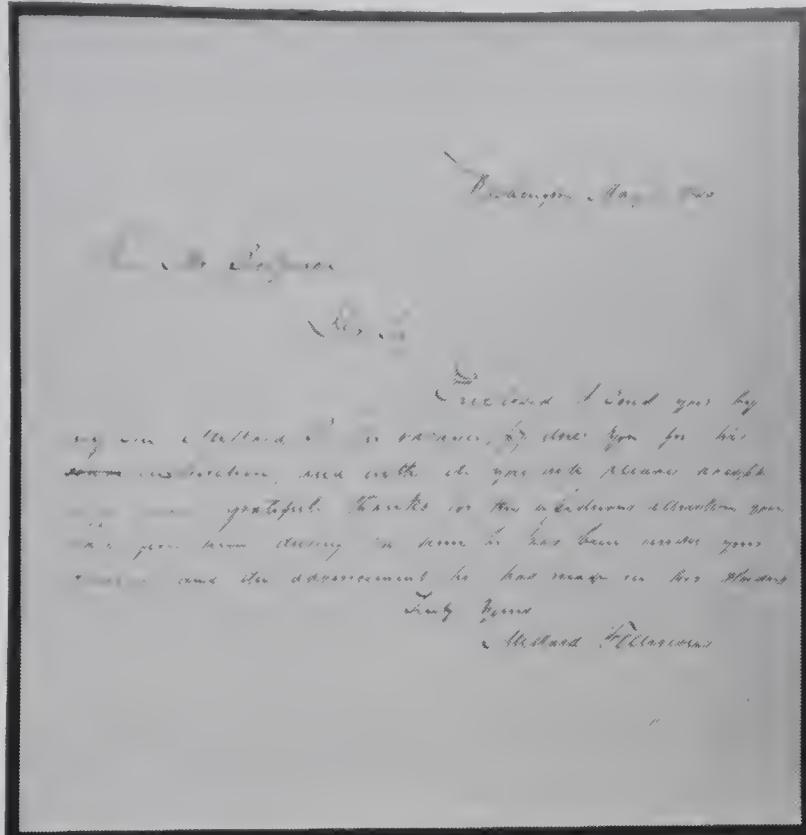

111 FIELD, CYRUS W. (1819-1892) [2]

($300-400)

Excellent signature from the legendary guitarist who died of an overdose at the age of 27.

151 HEYWARD, DU BOSE (1885-1940) ($350-450)
American author; wrote the novel Porgy, dramatized by Heyward and his wife in 1927 which became the basis for the operatic work Porgy & Bess by George Gershwin. Interesting lengthy TLS, one page, 4to, on his personal letterhead, Charleston, SC, n.d. To a fellow writer identified only as Zenith, Heyward writes: "You have been missed dreadfully hereabouts. The whole police force is down in the mouth, Chief Wise spends most of his time sobbing into his beer. The army, in the person of General Parker, sulks in its tent. I myself was putting a brave face on it until two days ago when one, Newman, forced himself into my home, introduced himself to me, then proceeded to brandish a letter from you under my nose, coyly reading passages, then watching to see me flinch. It was all quite horrible, and it ended by breaking me down completely...One of the items with which Newman tantalized me was the news of your story. He read (while obviously gloating at my eagerness and ignorance) that you were deep in your story, with a deadline of May first staring you in the face. My dear, is that possible! I can understand your killing off London and Scotland Yard in a round nine days, but My God This is CHARLESTON! Don't you know what happens to naughty profane little girls?...But I stray from my point...by the way, Helen Hayes, McArthur, Orson Welles are with us and I'm taking them to view the glories of the Dock Street Theatre..." Boldly signed "DuBose". Fine.

152 HEYWARD, THOMAS (1746-1809)

($375-500)

HOOVER WRITES ABOUT DEPRESSION

155 HOOVER, HERBERT C. (1874-1964)

($1500-1700)

President of the United States. TLS as President, one page, 4to, on official letterhead of The White House, Washington, July 10, 1931, marked "Confidential" in Hoover's hand. To Honorable Louis L. Emerson, Governor of Illinois, concerning the country's economic situation. In part the letter reads: "No matter what improvement there may be in our economic situation during the fall, we shall unquestionably have considerable continuance of destitution over the winter. I am wondering if it would not be advisable for us to get the machinery of the country into earlier action than last year in order that we may be provided for funds substantially made before the winter arrives. / Your organization last winter was one of the most admirable in the whole country and I had some thought that if all organizations were to begin their appeals for funds some time in October and run them over Thanksgiving we could make it more or less a national question and thereby support each state committee more effectively. / This, however, is just thinking aloud on the general situation and I would like your views..." Fine condition with dark clean signature.

"...I hope you are still going on as well as when you wrote to me in April, and that Grace also is keeping her health. I have been weaker during these last months, and the doctor does not approve of my walking much; and though this would once have annoyed me very much, I am now willing to oblige him. But I am hoping to come you, if you are well enough when the time comes...for a fortnight, as the idea was to meet Clemena and Laurence. I hear that the frost did a great deal of harm to fruit in the Vale of Pershore, but I hope that Tardebigge, being on higher ground, may have suffered less. I hope too that your family has not suffered either from frost or from any other ill..." Fine.

J. A. Housman
 Governor.

158 HOUSTON, SAMUEL (1793-1863) ($800-900)
Texian hero who defeated Santa Anna at San Jacinto to become the first President of the Republic of Texas; Houston, TX, is named in his honor. DS "Sam Houston", 2pp, 3-3/4" x 8", Austin, TX, December 24, 1860. Treasury Warrant for $128 boldly signed on the verso by Houston as Governor of Texas. Two months after signing this document, Houston was removed from office for refusing to take the oath of the Confederacy when Texas voted to secede from the Union. There are minor ink cancellations on the face of the document and few marginal edge splits at top not affecting Houston's dark bold signature. Fine.

159 HOUSTON, WILLIAM CHURCHILL (1746-1788) ($400-500)
Revolutionary War officer, Continental Congressman from New Jersey, and member of the Constitutional Convention. Being in very delicate health, he was literally carried into the Hall in Philadelphia to make a quorum. ALS "W. Houston, one page, folio, Trenton, NJ, Feb. 7, 1782, Trenton, NJ, with address panel on verso to Robert Morris, signer. An important letter with Revolutionary War content. "...The one directed to Mr. Boudinot will thank you to put in a way of reaching him safely; it contains copy of a Rule of Court for which he has written...The Returns from Europe, of the News of the Capture at York-Town shall have reached London, will probably [co]me from the Eastward, and reach you before us...Mrs. Houston is well and our two little Folks have got safely and easily through the small-pox, which has raged with unusual severity here..." Boldly signed. With a three-line initialled postscript. An indiscernible small hole, which has been skillfully repaired, otherwise in very good condition.

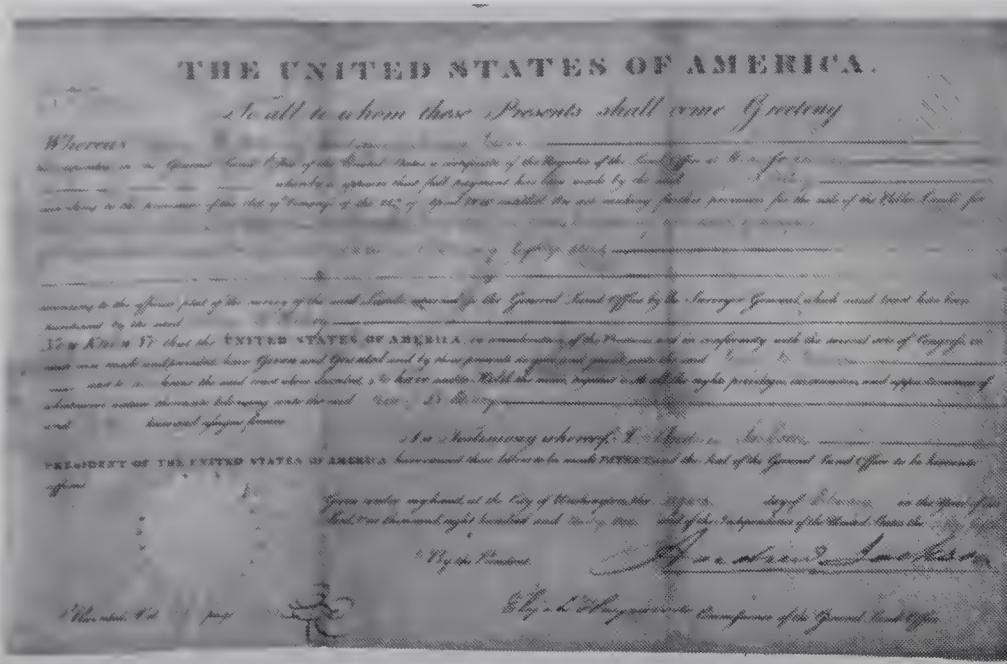

160 [INDIANS: FLORIDA CAMPAIGN] HITCHCOCK, ETHAN ALLEN (1798-1870) ($400-600)
Army officer, called the "pen of the army"; military adviser to President Lincoln during the Civil War. ALS "E. A. Hitchcock," 3pp, 4to, n.p., Nov. 28, 1840, with integral leaf addressed to his brother, Samuel Hitchcock, St. Louis, MO, postmarked "Savannah [GA] / Dec. 10". Remarkable letter containing sensitive military information. "Be sure and not publish anything I write, touching orders, which I have no business to make public...The 8th Infy. is encamped on the Withlacooche river, on its way to Tampa Bay. The morning we left Fort King, a despatch was recd. by the Gen. from the Secy. of War, which has altered our arrangements..." Interesting lengthy letter in fine condition.

161 INGRES, JEAN-AUGUSTE D. (1780-1867) ($300-400)
French neoclassical painter renowned for his mastery of line and superb draughtsmanship. Acclaimed as the foremost classicist of his time for his work, The Vow of Louis XIII (1824). ALS, in French, one page, blank integral leaf, 8vo, n.p., n.d. (ca1850). Ingres writes to a friend that he will be delighted to attend their function, and looks forward to their meeting again so soon. Fine.

Washington Irving — President.
28 August 1851

162 IRVING, WASHINGTON (1783-1859) ($350-500)
American author and diplomat. Partly engraved DS as president of the Trustees of the Astor Library, one page, with integral blank leaf, 4to, New York City, August 28, 1851. Acknowledgement of a donation of "catalogue of maps & surveys in the State offices at Albany" from A. G. Johnson Esq., Deputy Secretary of State. Signed in full. Fine.

163 JACKSON, ANDREW (1767-1845) ($1000-1200)
President of the United States. DS as President, one page, large horizontal folio, vellum, Washington, February 8, 1831. Land Grant good for 80 acres in Crawfordsville, IN, issued to Henry B. Milroy. Boldly signed in full by Jackson at lower right opposite the white embossed paper seal of the U.S. General Land Office. Scattered moderate staining, otherwise in good condition. President Jackson's signature measures 6-1/4" wide.

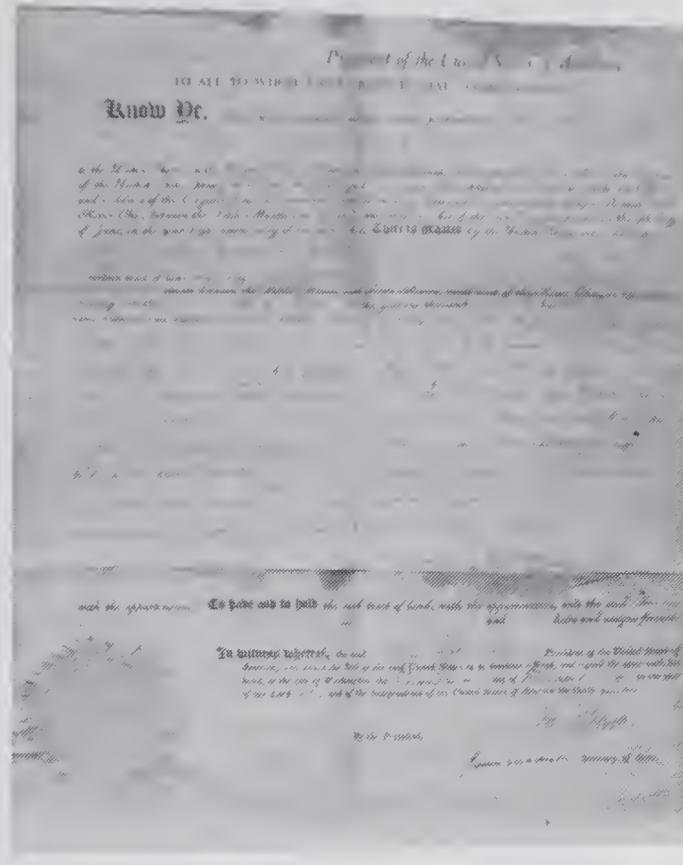

Lot 164

164 JAMES, HENRY (1843-1916) [2] ($1200-1400)
American novelist. ALS, 6pp, 8vo, on imprinted Reform Club stationery, Pall Mall, [England], March 15 1903. Interesting lengthy letter to his nephew, William James, son of the noted American psychologist and philosopher of the same name, Geneva, Switzerland. James writes: "Your excellent letter of this morning heaps the coals of fire of the Scriptural (as I believe it is) image. I must gratefully acknowledge it, though I wrote to you yesterday. Your letter would put me delightfully at ease about you if I had any anxiety. But this is a thing that, with you, I seem to manage to escape, though I manage to have it about everything else in the world. By the time you get this you will have read your Dad's letter which I enclosed, and have seen that, his lapsed, or dropped, idea of coming out had, at the moment he wrote, revived with some force. Since you speak of your own view of his so doing, I may echo it favorably - so little good does it seem to me that a mere dash can do him, with all cry and no wool. However one doesn't hear that he has moved, and I dare say the plan was again relinquished. Your mention of the date for proceeding to Marburg makes me feel as if you are about to vanish into the unknown, though not, obviously, the unknowing..." There is a light paper clip rust staining on the first page, otherwise in very good condition and fine content. With the original holograph addressed envelope, stamped and postmarked.

165 JAY, JOHN (1745-1829) [2] ($3000-4000)
American jurist and statesman; president of Continental Congress, drafted New York's first constitution, member of commission for negotiating peace with Great Britain, Chief Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court, etc. LS as U.S. Minister to Spain, 1/2pp, docketed integral leaf, 8vo, Aranjuez, June 21, 1781. Jay orders James Gardoqui of Madrid, "to pay to the Marquis D'Yranda or order the twelve thousand Dollars recd. by you for me..." Boldly signed in full. At lower left just below Jay's signature, Marquis D'Yranda has affixed his signature acknowledging receipt of the money. A three-line ink notation at the bottom of the same page indicates that "The money abovementioned was a portion of the sum advanced by the Spanish Court to pay bills drawn by Congress" Foxed, otherwise in good condition. Partially glued on the integral leaf to a matting, 10-1/2" x 13-1/2". Accompanied by a 12mo engraving of Jay.

166 JEFFERSON, THOMAS (1743-1826) / MADISON, JAMES (1751-1836) ($1000-1200)
Presidents of the United States. Partly printed DS as President, one page, 4-1/2" x 11-1/2", vellum, Washington, November 28, 1803. The lower portion of a document, possibly an appointment or commission, bearing the Presidential seal and signatures Jefferson as President and James Madison as Secretary of State. The top and part of the bottom portions of the document are missing. Jefferson's signature is good while Madison's is weak.

168 JEFFERSON, THOMAS / MADISON, JAMES ($25,000-30,000)
 Presidents of the United States. Exceptional LS "Th. Jefferson" as President, one page, large folio, parchment, Washington, May 30, 1801. To the Executive Directory of the Batavian Republic (Netherlands), recalling William Vans Murray, U.S. Minister to the said Republic, back to the United States. Although the letter states "...we have yielded to his request to be permitted to return to America". Jefferson recalled Murray when for reasons of economy he terminated the port. Although Murray was a Federalist, he preferred Jefferson to Burr in the disputed election of 1800. Murray shared with Jefferson a strong interest in Indian languages. Countersigned by James Madison as Secretary of State. Handsomely matted to show two sides including the Great Seal of the United States which has been affixed to the docketed integral address leaf. Except for a small hole on the integral leaf, the letter is in very fine condition and the signatures are dark. An extraordinary letter of great significance; according to the ABPC, this is the only known Letter of State signed by Jefferson to have appeared on the market since 1916.

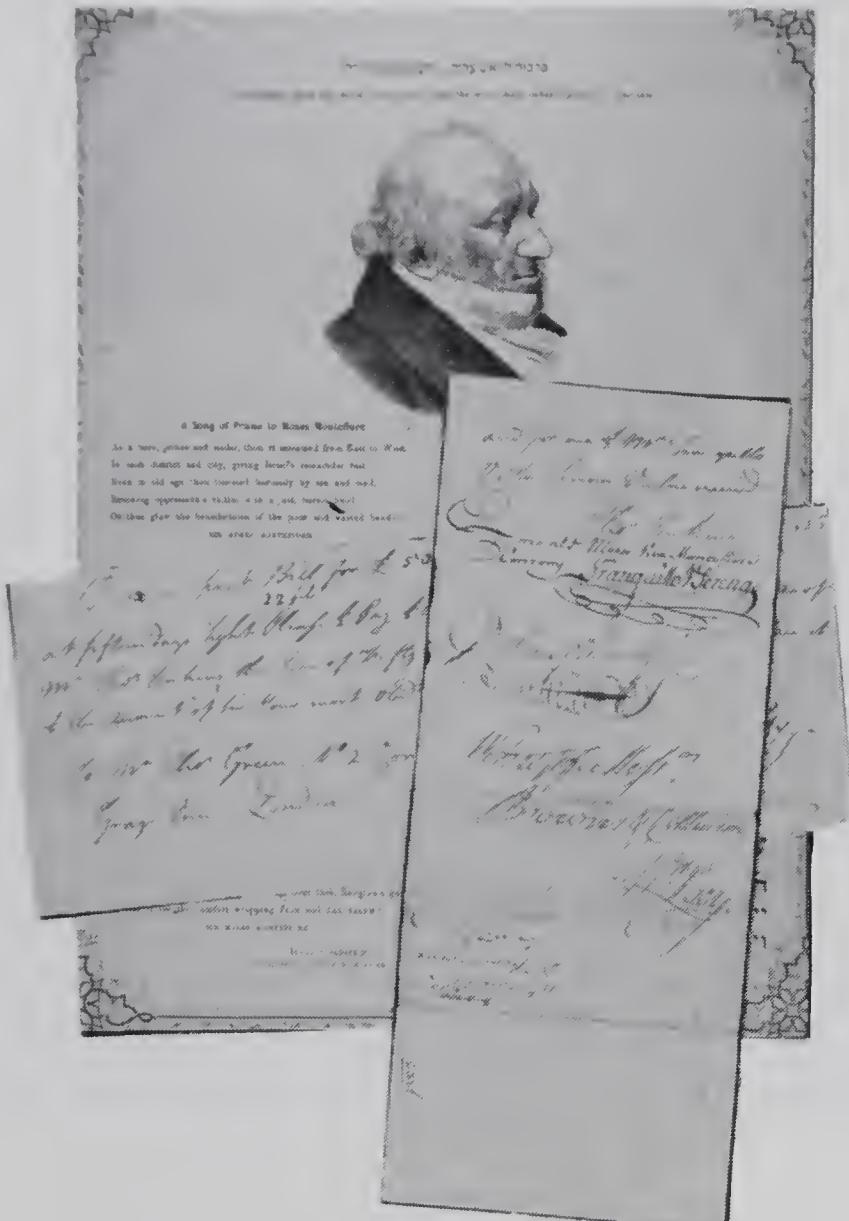

167 JEFFERSON, THOMAS / MADISON, JAMES ($8500-9000)
 Presidents of the United States. DS "Th. Jefferson" as President, one page, large folio, parchment, Washington, February 11, 1807. A grant of 90 acres of land "situated between the Little Miami and Sciota Rivers, north-west of the River Ohio" to James McNutt for his three years of service as a Lieutenant "in the Virginia Line on Continental Establishment." Signed by Jefferson at lower right opposite the white embossed wafer seal of his office. Jefferson's signature is a bit light, otherwise quite legible. Countersigned by James Madison as Secretary of State. There are scattered minor toning, else in good condition.

169 JOHNSON, LYNDON B. (1908-1973) [2] ($800-1000)
 President of the United States. TLS as President, one page, 4to, on official letterhead of The White House, Washington, June 27, 1967. To Will E. Odom of Austin, TX, President Johnson writes: "It is good to be a grandfather -- and even better when all the family can share in the fortune of kind friends. We are so grateful that Lucy and her baby are well and happy. You know how much we all appreciate your thoughtfulness in writing." Boldly signed in full. With the original stamped and postmarked envelope. Very fine condition.

170 JOHNSON, LYNDON B. ($250-350)
 TLS "L.B.J.", one page, small 4to, on gilt-engraved monogrammed letterhead with presidential seal, Austin TX, July 17, 1972. To George Turner, a former Washington neighbor, "It's always nice to hear from good neighbors...especially those who have such kind memories of our years in Washington. Thank you for being thoughtful enough to tell us we are missed and remembered...please do come to the Library sometime..." Fine.

Note: Autographs may be reduced size. Some illustrations have been trimmed to exclude framing.

171 JUDAICA: MONTEFIORE, MOSES / ROMNEY, GEORGE ($850-1200)

Grandfather and founder of the Jewish merchant and philanthropic family best represented by his grandson, Sir Moses Hiram Montefiore. Endorsement by Montefiore on an MDS by noted English artist George Romney, one page, 3-3/4" x 9", on laid paper, Rome, January 12, 1774. A 15-day promissory note issued by Romney to Thomas Jenkins for £50. Boldly signed on the verso by Montefiore to whom the sum was eventually paid. Montefiore's signature is characterized by a fancy paraph which can easily be distinguished from among several endorsements. Also printed sheet in praise of Moses Montefiore. Charming accompanying piece of poetry in English and Hebrew with a three quarter portrait of the gentleman. Printed by Isaac Goldstein, 157 Hudson Street. Fine.

lectures on some literary topic at some nearby Corinthian college. But I don't think that we ought to perform our regular stunts separately. Your statement of the case, as to the danger of separation weakening the selling strength of the combination as a combination, surely is sound.

My wife and I will expect to meet you in the main dining room of the Hotel Saville on Tuesday night at 8:30 pm. At the Dickens Fellowship meeting, I'll have about forty minutes I'll want you to fill, which I will divide into two periods, with some music in between. You will read anything you feel like reading.

I'm grateful to you for helping me out in my Dickens Fellowship show, and as you know, I'll reciprocate any time I can.

Yours cordially,

Joyce Kilmer

Ellis Parker Butler Esq.
242 State Street,
Albany, N.Y.

173 KILMER, JOYCE (1886-1918) ($600-700)

American poet, teacher, editor and essayist; author of the classic poem Trees (1913) which won him international fame. A strong advocate of Allied cause in WWI, Joyce Kilmer enlisted in the army and was killed in France where he was posthumously awarded the Croix de Guerre. TLS "Joyce Kilmer", 2pp (separate leaves), 4to, on letterhead of The New York Times, New York City, May 11, 1916. To fellow author Ellis Parker Butler, working out an orderly plan for cooperative speaking commitments. In part the letter reads: "...You certainly are taking a fine ethical stand in the matter of separate engagements, and I appreciate it. However there is this complication...I... had an offer from somewhere in New England asking for me alone, and believing that it was for some time before our regular engagement season, I told him to go ahead on it. Therefore I personally have no right to object to your taking Buffalo by yourself. Perhaps it will even matters up...but for us afterwards to make a rule that we will only take engagements as a team...Your statement of the case, as to the danger of separation weakening the selling strength of the combination as a combination, surely is sound..." Kilmer closes with a touch of gratitude to his partner for helping him out in his Dickens Fellowship show. There is a minor paper clip rust stain on top left of the first page and browning on the second page, otherwise in very good condition. Excellent content.

Jack Kennedy

172 KENNEDY, JOHN F. (1917-1963) ($1500-1800)
President of the United States. Inscribed Book: Why England Slept, 252pp, hardbound, Wilfred Funk, Inc., New York, 1940. Kennedy's first published book, written as a Harvard undergraduate (1940), an analysis of England's failure to rearm before World War II. (Winston Churchill's volume of selected speeches, "While England Slept" had been published in 1938). Boldly inscribed to Bill Kemper on first blank page and signed "Jack Kennedy". Fine.

174 KING, MARTIN LUTHER, JR. (1929-1968) ($600-700)
American clergyman and reformer; awarded the 1964 Nobel Peace Prize. Full signature on greenish album page, about 4-1/2 x 5-1/2". Matted, with a B&W picture of the younger King. Matted and framed under glass; overall size: 14" x 11-1/2". Fine.

175 KIPLING, RUDYARD (1865-1936) ($375-425)
English author, awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1907. TLS, one page, 4to, on stationery imprinted with "Bateman's / Burwash / Sussex", April 24th, 1929, marked "Private". Kipling responds to a letter he received from Monsieur Fabulet of Venice, Italy, and states "I do not recall ever having written the words you refer to: -"Un homme sain" etc." Signed by Kipling in full. Fine. Comes with the original stamped and postmarked envelope.

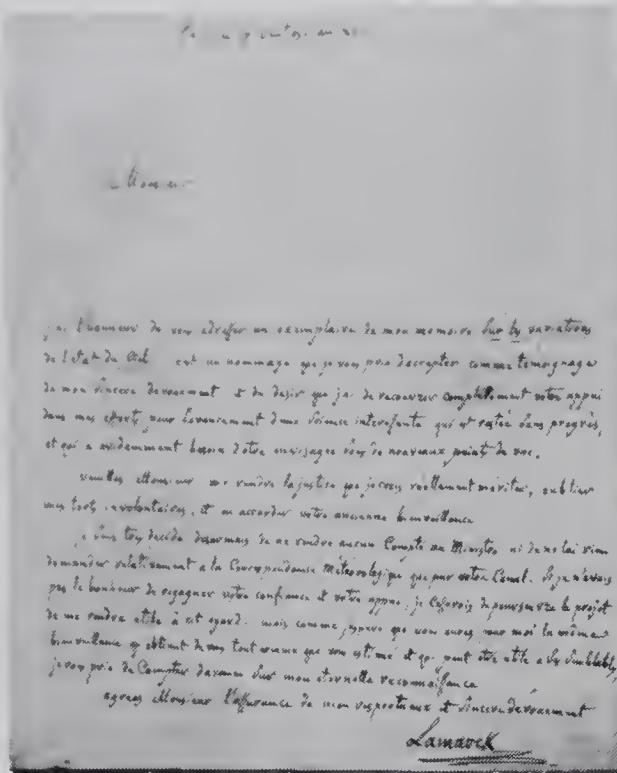

176 LAFAYETTE, GILBERT DE MOTIER, Marquis de (1757-1834) ($800-1000)

French soldier and statesman who fought in the American Revolution and worked for French-American alliance. ALS "Lafayette", in French, one page, with docketed holograph integral address leaf, La Grange [his estate in France], January 8, 1826. To Monsieur Zernaux of Paris, accepting an invitation, on behalf of his granddaughters, to a ball "...provided they have a chaperon to escort them..." Very protective of his granddaughters, Lafayette then names his daughter-in-law's sister to act as the chaperone. "...I know it will please you if I suggest (as chaperone) their aunt, Madame Laubespine...whom I consider a daughter to me...She is first cousin to Monsieur de Grammont, and consequently a passion of the family on all sides. Will you please inform Madame Chaulin of my letter, since she is involved more than you, I imagine, with the details of the ball. I am quite certain that Madame Laubespine will be most anxious to accept your invitation in order to have the pleasure of seeing you, one and all, and I hope that you will not find that I have taken the excessive liberty by writing to you, with confidence, what I would say to you face to face...although I am no longer a dancer, I am definitely planning to go to your house on Monday..." Interesting letter, handsomely penned and signed. With a typewritten English translation. Fine.

177 LAFAYETTE, GILBERT DU MOTIER [2] ($300-400)
ALS, in French, 1/2 page, with holograph integral address leaf, 8vo, Paris, January 9, 1831. To the Mayor of the 8th Arrondissement in Paris intervening in a case. Lower corner tip off at lower left, and a small piece missing in the integral leaf, otherwise in fine condition. With a 10x8 color lithograph reproduction of Lafayette which will frame handsomely with the letter.

Please note that a 10% buyer's charge will be added to each lot purchased on all purchases.

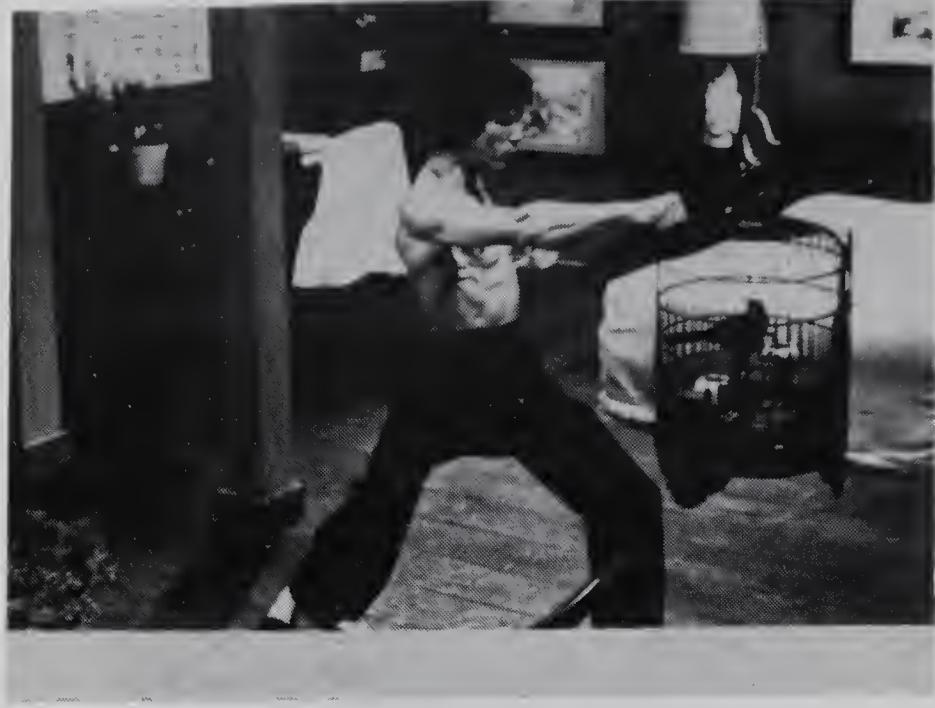

178 LAMARCK, JEAN BAPTISTE (1744-1829) ($600-700)

French naturalist; forerunner of Darwin in evolutionary theory; responsible for classification of animals into vertebrates and invertebrates. ALS "Lamarck", in French, one page, with blank integral leaf, 4to, Paris, "17 Ventose [approximately March 10th]", 1811. To an unnamed correspondent, Lamarck writes: "I have the honor of addressing to you a copy of my treatise On the Variations of State of the Sky. It is in homage that I ask you to accept it as a token of my sincere devotion and my wish to regain completely your assistance in my efforts toward the advancement of an interesting science which has remained without progress; and which evidently needs to be considered in all aspects...I have decided, from now on, neither to report any information to the Minister nor to request from him any information relative to the Meteorologic Correspondence but obtain these information only from your source. If I should not have the joy of regaining your trust and assistance, I will cease to pursue the project of utilizing myself to this effect, but, since I hope that you have for me the same esteem that you have only for those whom you consider, those who can be of some good to mankind, I assure you that you can count on my eternal gratefulness..." Minor foxing, otherwise in fine condition. Dark text and signature with excellent content. With a typewritten full English translation.

179 LANDON, ALFRED M. (1887-) ($350-450)

American businessman and political leader; unsuccessful Presidential candidate (against FDR), nicknamed "Frugal Alf" for his balanced state budgets while governor of Kansas. TLS "Alf M Landon", one page, 4to, on his personal letterhead, Topeka, KS, September 22, 1967. To Mr. Peter Buckingham, San Mateo, CA, concerning his economic policy. "...as far as the New Deal is concerned, I did not question many of the proposals of Mr. Roosevelt...The one basic factual difference was that I believed in keeping the American dollar sound - while we tried out in the light of trial and error especially the Welfare State...In my foreign policy...in 1936 I said that the National actions were not the way to peace. They did encourage the aggressor to think that the American people would not fight under any circumstances, and that was not true..." Boldly signed, with a holograph addition. Fine.

180 LEE, BRUCE (1941-1973)

($400-500)

Internationally acclaimed martial arts film actor. PS, 8x10, B&W, full-length photo profile of the muscular action star in fighting stance from a scene in one of his movies. Lee has signed in full along the white bottom margin using a blue ball point pen. Matted and handsomely framed under glass. Overall size: 12-1/2" x 15-1/2". Fine.

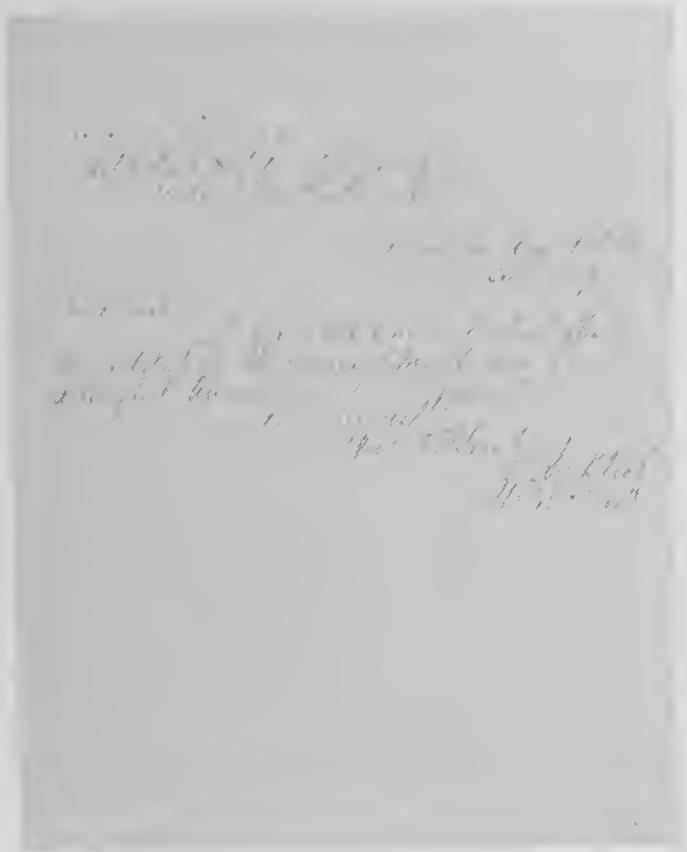

181 LEE, ROBERT E. (1807-1870)

($1500-2000)

General in chief of all Confederate Armies. Clipped Signature "Very truly / R E Lee", about 1-1/2" x 3", possibly from a larger ALS. There are scattered glue staining, but the signature is dark and legible. Matted with a half-length portrait of a seated Lee engraved with his signature and framed under glass in a gilded ornate wooden frame. Fine.

Note: Autographs may be reduced size. Some illustrations have been trimmed to exclude framing.

182 LEE, ROBERT E. (1807-1870) ($4000-5000)
General in chief of all Confederate Armies. ALS "R E Lee Bt Col", 1/2 page, on ruled stationery, 4to, Arlington, Alexandria, VA, September 1, 1859. To Col. S. Thomas, Adjutant General of the Army Headquarters in New York City, Lee writes: "I have the honor to report that my address for the current month will be "Arlington Alexandria P.O. Virginia..." Six weeks later Lee would be sent with a detachment of men to suppress the uprising led by the abolitionist John Brown at Harper's Ferry. Neatly penned and signed. Very fine condition.

183 LIBERACE (1919-1987) ($350-400)
American pianist. PS, full color, 10x8, showing a half-length photo of a smiling Liberace wearing one of his extravagant costumes and jewelries. Boldly inscribed on the light upper right corner and signed by the flamboyant performer just below his printed signature at upper left. Matted with an unsigned full color 8x10 photograph depicting Liberace with the rarest piano in his collection, a hand-painted Pleyel Concert Grand Piano played by Chopin at Versailles Palace in the early 1800's. Fine condition and ready for framing. Overall size: 16" x 20".

184 [LINCOLN, ABRAHAM] HERNDON, WILLIAM H. (1818-1891) [2] ($400-500)
American biographer and lawyer; junior law partner of Abraham Lincoln whose anti-slavery advocacy purportedly influenced Lincoln's anti-slavery views. DS "W. H. Herndon", one page, Sangamon County (Springfield, IL), April 10, 1867. Affidavit stating that one Richard Guins lives in Missouri. Fine. Comes with an original edition of the Illinois Journal, Springfield, October 1, 1861, listing on the front page an advertisement for Lincoln & Herndon, Attorneys and Counselors at Law.

186 LINCOLN, ABRAHAM (1809-1865) ($3500-4000)

President of the United States. Autograph Document Signed "Let them men take / the oath of Dec. 8, / 1863 & be discharged. / A. Lincoln / January 11, 1865", five lines on a 2-3/4" x 3-1/4" paper, cut from a larger leaf. There are minor staining and smudges, otherwise in good condition. The text and signature are dark and legible. Penned entirely in Lincoln's hand barely three months before his assassination. President Lincoln's plan of Reconstruction after the Civil War offered amnesty to Southerners taking loyalty oath and Federal recognition of state governments. Mounted and matted (suede) with a handsome circular side-view bust photo of Lincoln in color and an imprinted quotation "Government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth." Framed under glass; overall size: 17-1/2" x 13". On the back are tape repairs and a printed certification of authenticity by a prominent autograph dealer complete with his wax seal.

188 LONDON, JACK (1876-1916) ($500-700)

American novelist and short-story writer. ANS "Jack London", one page, 3-1/2" x 3", on portion of a postcard (the correspondence side), rubber stamped with London's address in Sonoma, CA, n.d. Attached to the lower left corner of an album leaf, 7" x 5-1/2", with an unsigned 12mo half-length B&W picture overlapping London's note thus obscuring the upper third of the note to fully reveal only the concluding three lines which reads "...& see our ranch some time - Jack London". On the verso of this album leaf are two autographs of two celebrities in 1919.

187 LIVINGSTON FAMILY ($550-650)

American family prominent during the colonial and postcolonial periods. Extraordinary document on three separate pages, 4to, May 20, 1829, containing approximately 32 signatures comprising "heirs at law" of Mrs. Janet Livingston Montgomery (wife of General Richard Montgomery) related by consanguinity or affinity to Robert R. Livingston (1746-1813), Continental Congressman, one of committee of five who drew up the Declaration of Independence, administered oath of George Washington as first President of the United States. Among the signatures are that of Revolutionary War Generals Morgan Lewis and John Armstrong. Tiny holes along folds and scattered slight foxing, otherwise in good condition. A Robert R. Livingston colored engraving and a William Livingston bill for legal services are also included. Also a handwritten "Livingston Family Document" which lists the members, relation, dates of birth and death.

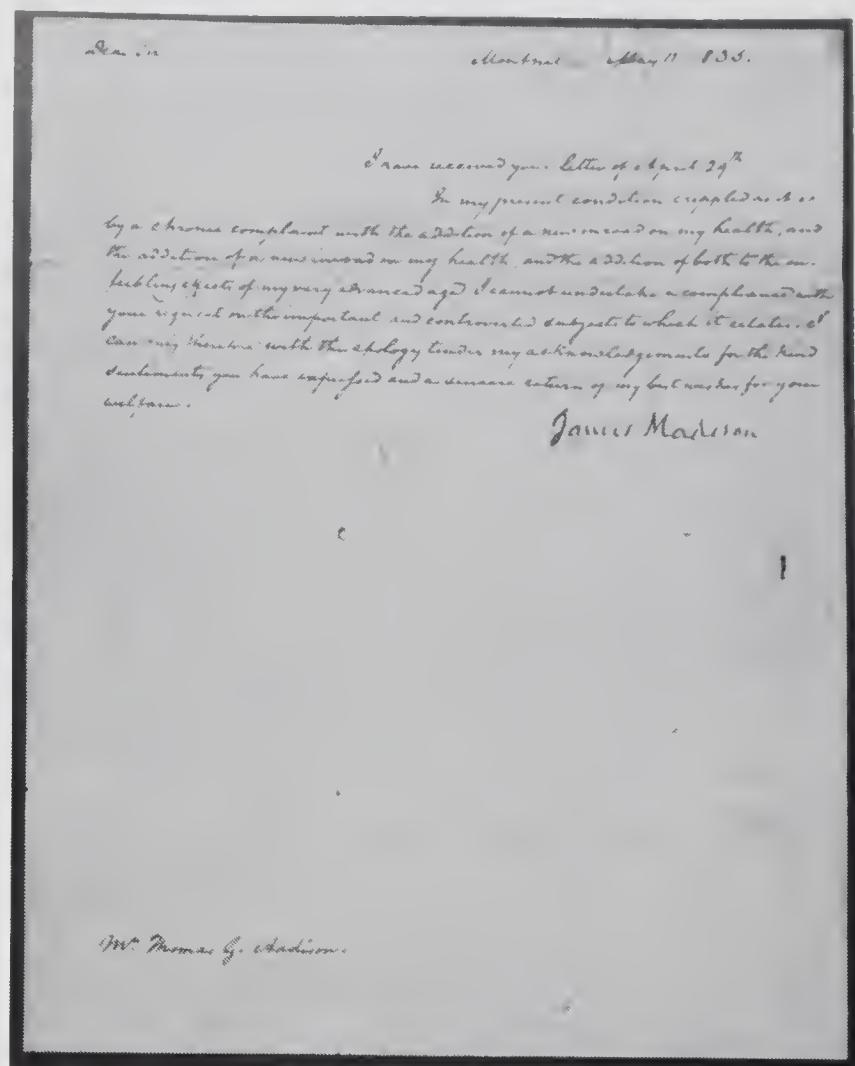

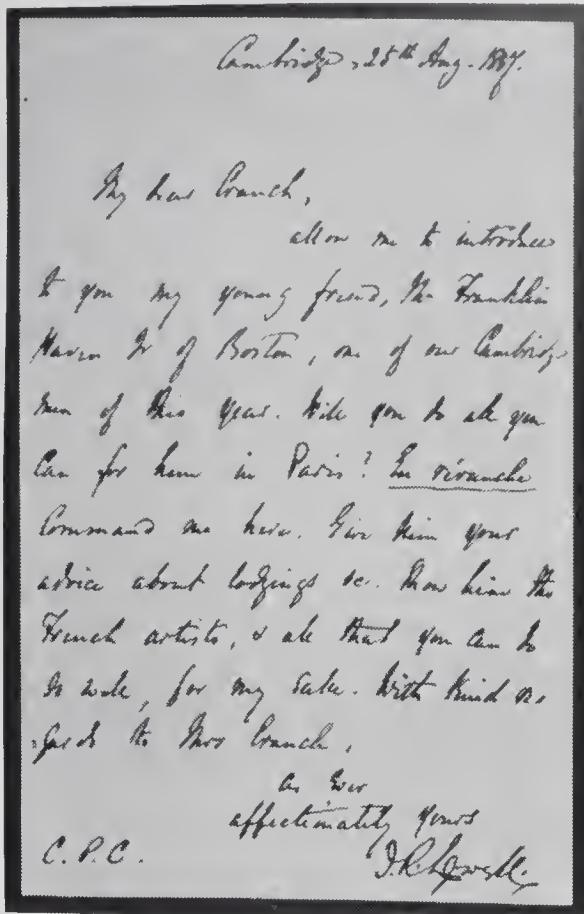

Tomorrow I leave town

189 LONGFELLOW, HENRY W. (1807-1882) ($400-500)

American poet. ALS, 3pp, small 12mo, Cam[bridge], June 30, 1875. To an unidentified correspondent, Longfellow thanks him for his "beautiful volume "Nooks and Corners of the New England Coast"" and "wishes for its success in every way". "...Tomorrow I leave for a week or two in Maine, and shall take the book with me to read and enjoy at leisure. I am sure it cannot fail to be interesting..." Longfellow was born in Maine and spent much time there often using it as a setting for his poems. Slight offset browning on third page, otherwise very good condition. Dark text and full signature.

A FAILING MADISON

190 LOWELL, JAMES RUSSELL (1819-1891) ($450-550)
American poet, essayist, and diplomat. Group of three ALsS, together 4 full pages, each with blank integral leaf, 8vo, on his monogrammed personal stationery, Cambridge [MA], August 25, 1857. To Franklin Haven, enclosing letters of introduction to C.C. Black and Christopher P. Cranch in Florence and Paris respectively. Lowell writes Haven: "...I enclose you your letters which I think you will find of use to you. They are all to persons worth knowing. Mr. Cranch will give you Mr. Greenough's present address. Mrs. Story's naptions are the pleasantest in Rome & where one has the best society - American, English, & Italian. Mr. Black you can find...in Florence. He may be living in villeggiatura but do not fail to find him. He is an English gentleman who has lived twenty years in Italy, & whose advise will be of great value to you...All the letters are to particular friends of mine who I am sure will do all they can for you..." At the bottom is a minor edge tear which has been tape repaired, otherwise in good condition. Accompanied by the two letters of introduction penned by Lowell on similar stationery and addressed to Black and Cranch respectively. Both in fine condition. [3 Letters]

191 MADISON, JAMES (1751-1836) ($2500-3000)
President of the United States. LS, 1/2 page, 4to, Montpellier, May 11, 1835. Written barely a year before his death, a feeble Madison apologizes to Thomas G. Addison for not being able to comply with his request. "...In my present condition crippled as it is by a chronic complaint with the addition of a new inroad on my health, and the addition of a new inroad on my health [as written], and the addition of both to the enfeebling effects of my very advanced age, I cannot undertake a compliance with your request on the important and controverted subjects to which it relates. I can only therefore with this apology tender my acknowledgements for the kind sentiments you have expressed and a sincere return of my best wishes for your welfare." Signed "James Madison". Although the strokes reflects Madison's seeming difficulty, nonetheless, the signature is dark and strongly accomplished. There is a minor paper tape repair on the verso and few marginal fold junction holes, otherwise in fine condition. (Please see next lot for a related item.)

We accept MAIL, PHONE or FAX bids

Addison, Esq. of Cincinnati, OH, and postmarked Orange, VA, May 13 [1835]. Soiled with the usual folds and a minor tape repair on the verso, otherwise in very good condition.

Free James Madison

193 MADISON, JAMES / MONROE, JAMES ($1250-1650)
President of the United States and Signer of the Declaration of Independence. DS as President, one page, with integral leaf addressed "To Our Great and Good Friend / His Majesty / The King of the Two Sicilies" and bears a white wafer U. S. seal, large folio, Washington City, April 26, 1816. Appointment of William Rinkney as special minister to the King "on subjects of high importance to both nations." Madison's full signature is clean and dark. James Monroe has countersigned as Secretary of State. Professionally repaired fold splits are virtually invisible. Fine.

194 MADISON, JAMES / MONROE, JAMES ($600-750)
Partly printed DS as President, one page, 5" x 11", vellum, Washington, December 11, 1812. Bottom portion of an appointment or commission bearing the U. S. Seal and bold signatures of James Madison as President and James Monroe as Secretary of State. The top portion of the document is missing. Some soiling and creases, otherwise good condition and legible signatures.

195 MANN, THOMAS (1875-1955) ($800-900)
German novelist; recipient of the 1929 Nobel Prize for Literature. ALS, one page, 4to, on letterhead imprinted with his name and address, Munchen, June 21, 1929. Handwritten in Gothic script pertaining a bibliography Mann is concerned about. Signed in full. Matted with silk, and framed under glass. Overall size: 12-1/2" x 11-1/2".

196 MANSON, CHARLES / GOOD, SANDY [2] ($375-450)
Convicted crime figure. ALS, 2pp, ruled legal paper, n.p., n.d. Letter concerning a ring. "At one time I had a ring like that. IF IT IS the ring, it has power - if it could talk it would yell - it was on a copper ring & it has a cristel [sic] set of neck brace balls that go with it in the same circle..." The whole letter deals mainly with the ring, but on occasions Manson would venture on totally unrelated topics. Accompanying the letter is a pertinent ALS by Sandy Good (one of Manson's loyal followers), 2pp, 8vo, California, February 10, 1992. Good forwards Manson's letter to a certain "Shaun" and requests to have the ring photographed. Good wants copy to be sent to Manson and another copy to her just in case Manson does not get it. She ends her letter by threatening to sue the prison for not allowing her to visit Manson. Fine.

197 MANUSCRIPT LEAVES [15] ($350-450)
One Breviary Leaf on vellum from Northern Italy (132 x 98mm). Decorative with red and blue decorated initials and written in brown ink in a small rounded Gothic hand. From first half of 15th Century. Ten pages from a Paris Bible dating from the mid 13th Century, on vellum (134 x 88mm). Very fine Gothic script. One Open Page showing two sides of Breviary from Northern Italy written in brown ink. With illuminated capitals from the first half of the 15th Century. Three pages from Homilies on vellum (145 x 105mm) written in brown ink from Italy in the 13th Century. All these manuscript pages are archively mounted with attractive mounts. Fine.

198 MANUSCRIPT LEAVES [8] ($350-450)
Three pages from Book of Hours on vellum (145 x 100mm). Written in Italy in the 2nd half of the 15th Century. A few touches of color, otherwise plain. Four pages from another Book of Hours written on vellum in Flanders around 1500. One leaf from a miniature Book of Hours written in the southern Netherlands around 1440. The initials are in blue and gold giving the tiny page (about 80 x 55mm) a jewel-like appearance. All archively mounted, with attractive mountings. Fine.

199 MANUSCRIPTS: English, 16th & 18th Centuries [2] ($400-500)
1) A leaf from the Pollicronicon, 2pp, 4to, splendid work of Peter de Treveris, who printed the book in London under Henry VIII in 1527. The type used is an early English Black Letter, with curious woodcut initials, and handwritten notations of an early scholar along the margins. The Pollicronicon was the first History of the World to be written in the English language by Ranulph Higden, a 14th Century monk. Two other known editions were each printed by Caxton and De Worde. The paper is browned due to aging, with minor edge tears at the sides, otherwise in very good condition. 2) Folio document, 3pp, 24" x 28-1/2", vellum, July 3, 1764. Deed of sale penned in large bold letters, affixed with red wax seals and blue revenue impressions, and signed by parties involved. Elaborate Royal seal on the first page, duly notarized and recorded. Slightly soiled. Folded. Fine.

"Will you not dine quite informally with Mr. Hale and myself to-morrow...We are hoping that Capt. Miller, Major Plea Well, Mr. Gibson, Dr. Taylor and Mr. Buckler may also be with us..." LEONARD WOOD M.D. (1860-1927), Army officer, organized Rough Riders with Theodore Roosevelt, candidate for Republican nomination for U.S. President. TLS, one page, blank integral leaf, 8vo, on "Headquarters Eastern Department" stationery, Governors Island, NY, May 14, 1916. Marked "Private". To Field Marshal Viscount French, concerning a visit of a member of his staff. "This will be presented by Colonel A. E. Bradley, Medical Corps, U.S. Army, who is visiting England as a member of an official commission to study medical and surgical conditions in England and at the Front..." Both fine condition.

GROVER CLEVELAND'S SURGEON

WORLD WAR I ARMY MEDICAL [2] ($500-750)
WILLIAM WILLIAMS KEEN (1837-1932), American physician who was one of the first surgeons in America to adopt Lister's methods of antiseptics and in 1887 performed what is said to have been the first successful operation for brain tumor in the U.S., the patient surviving the operation for 30 years. In 1893 Keen assisted Dr. Joseph Bryant of New York in removing the left upper jaw of President Grover Cleveland for a sarcoma. The operation was performed with the greatest secrecy on board E. C. Benedict's yacht in Long Island Sound, and was completely successful. Keen published an account of the procedure in the Saturday Evening Post of September 22, 1917. TLS "W. W. Keen", 2pp, 4to, on stationery imprinted with his address "1729 Chestnut Street / Philadelphia", PA, Oct. 31, 1898. To his daughter, Margaret, c/o Ms. Porter's School, Farmington, CT, describing his own medical condition at the time and discussing her debut into society. "Your letter found me yesterday morning very unexpectedly in bed. I was suddenly seized...with a severe chill and could scarcely really undress to go to bed. By eleven o'clock, my temperature was 103.6 and I sent for Dr. Wilson, certainly expecting that I was in for a pneumonia as a result of the exposure on Thursday...I feel pretty weak and miserable. I think I shall be all right by tomorrow...By the way as to your coming out, I am quite sure you will have to postpone it, because I don't think it will be possible for you to get your list ready and the envelopes directed and out in time...It will take you not less than two weeks to get your list made out with the correct addresses, etc...." With the original holograph addressed envelope, stamped and postmarked. Fine.

Although several pieces have minor fold splits and/or marginal edge tears, most of the documents are in fine condition. Must be seen!

Letter open until after tomorrow's broadcast -
 Last Sunday RSKOL (Santa Rosa) did not broadcast "Wings of Song" - nor was there any other stations we can hear. I will give you a report on tomorrow's program if we can hear it. Your brand number "Whin" is particularly applicable to my Commission at the moment.
 Adm. Lubbock, Chief of Naval Personnel, writes me he has sent you the words and music of the Sailor's Hymn. I hope you will like it - and that on my next visit Curt will sing it. Here after tomorrow's broadcast. - Sunday 20 May -
 We listened in vain today for "Wings of Song" and we did not hear it. Apparently the Santa Rosa station did not carry it.
 We are so disappointed! Catherine joins me in warmest regards & opposition to the strikers - Sincerely (C. Winter)

220 NIMITZ, CHESTER W. (1885-1966) ($375-450)
 U. S. Navy Fleet Admiral. ALS "Chester", 2pp, 4to, on his official letterhead, Berkeley, CA, May 19, 1951. To "Dear Curt & Mary", thanking them for their hospitality during his visit in Washington and updating them about his commission. In part, the letter reads: "...The President has published our reports & has announced - but not accepted our resignations...the Pres. is still hopeful of Congress granting the exemptions which would make possible our work going ahead. So we must wait..." Admiral Nimitz goes on to write about radio broadcasts of mutual interest. Fine.

We accept MAIL, PHONE or FAX bids
 for any lots in this Sale.

221 NIXON, RICHARD M. [2] ($350-425)
 President of the United States. Two TLLS "RN", each one page, small 4to, both addressed to Hon. Bob Wilson, Washington, D.C. In the first letter, which is on White House letterhead, dated July 10, 1970, President Nixon expresses his "sincere appreciation for the manner in which you and your colleagues are working to insure the election of a Republican House in November..." The second letter, dated February 22, 1985, shows Nixon's anticipation and preparation for the forthcoming 10th Anniversary of the fall of Saigon, which to the day still seem to haunt him. In part, the letter reads: "...There can be an honest difference of opinion over whether we should have become involved in Vietnam and how the war was conducted. But after witnessing the reign of terror that has been imposed upon the people of Vietnam and Cambodia by the Communist regimes we opposed, fair-minded observers can reach only one conclusion: Whatever our mistakes, the United States tried and failed in a just cause in Vietnam. As I put it in the last paragraph of this book, "No More Vietnams" can mean that we should not try again. It should mean we must not fail again..." Interesting political commentary. Both letters are in very fine condition.

222 O'CASEY, SEAN (1880-1964)

($350-450)

Irish playwright. ALS, one page, small 4to, on ruled paper, Wiltown N.S. Mullingor, June 13, 1933. To the Editor of the Irish World, New York City, O'Casey writes: "I hope a Forde still holds the post as Editor. We ask you to publish enclosed Review [included]. Out of sale we hope to erect a monument at his native spot for Leo. He is worthy of it. For any help - editorial - you may give we shall be ever grateful..." With the original holograph addressed envelope, stamped and postmarked. Also included is the typed carbon copy of the "Review" mentioned in the letter, 3pp, legal folio. It is a review of John Keegan Casey's new edition of The Rising of the Moon and Other Ballads, Dublin (1933). The manuscript of this review is by O'Casey, and contains ink corrections or additions in his hand on each page.

223 O'NEILL, ROSE CECIL (1874-1944)

($350-450)

American illustrator and author; originator and designer of kewpies. ALS "Rose", 3-1/2pp, 8vo, Bonniebrook, August 15, 1941. Personal letter to "Dear Thing" [believed to be Witter Bynner's secretary], sympathizing and consoling her on her loss. "I have been mourning with you for Pancho all this time. They leave such a void - and when they are dead they are so wistful - asking endlessly unanswered questions...Who would have thought that he was destined to die. There was so much joyous life in him...Dear, dear girl, here is such love and sympathy in your loss." Mentioned in passing was a contract signed by O'Neill with the Atlantic Press for her autobiography. Penned in O'Neill's distinctive script. Fine.

224 OGDEN, AARON (1756-1839)

($650-800)

Revolutionary War officer, lawyer, politician and steamboat operator. His suit against the steamboat monopoly in New York (Gibbons vs Ogden) reached the Supreme Court where Chief Justice Marshall's decision established the principle of freedom of interstate commerce. Clipped Signature, 3/4" x 4", full signature apparently from a letter or document. Framed under glass with a color picture reproduction of Ogden; overall size: 13-1/4" x 11". The frame is old and ragged, but the signature is fine.

225 PATTON, GEORGE S. (1885-1945)

($1000-1500)

American general considered to be a military genius; known as "Old Blood and Guts" for his impetuosity, toughness and ruthlessness. Official U. S. Forces Envelope Signed "G. S. Patton Jr." as Commander of the Third Army, on top left portion next to his typewritten return address, 5" x 10", addressed to The Honorable Henry L. Stimson, U. S. Secretary of War, Washington, D.C., postmarked U. S. Army Postal Service, August 21, 1944. In early August 1944, Patton's Third Army had trapped and demoralized the German Fifth Panzer and Seventh Armies in Argentan, north of Normandy. The campaign was marked by boldness and ruthlessness typical of a Patton offensive style. Patton and his forces were in hot pursuit of the Germans when the logistical machinery was unable to bring forward supplies, particularly gasoline, swiftly enough thus bringing his offensive to a grounding halt. The content of this envelope may have been a letter of complaint to Stimson about his difficulty in procuring supplies. There are few pencil notations, otherwise in fine condition. Handsomely matted in matching colors with a half-length field action photo of Patton next to a tank, a Third Army patch and two stars indicating his rank then. A gilded engraving of General Patton's title and dates completes the ensemble which is framed under glass in a dark-stained decorative wooden frame.

226 PIERCE, FRANKLIN (1804-1869)

($500-600)

President of the United States. Small envelope addressed in Pierce's hands to his brother-in-law, Hon. John Aiken, franked "Franklin Pierce" (possibly as President) on the upper right next to a large circular postmark "Washington Cy. D.C. / Nov 24 (n.y.) / Free". Fine.

227 PIERCE, FRANKLIN (1804-1869) ($500-700)

President of the United States. ALS "Frank Pierce", one page, tall 4to, Newport [NH], April 25, 1842. To an unidentified correspondent, Pierce writes: "I have been trying cases and your letter...has just been received - I am in the midst of a trial for the breach of a promise of marriage - adjourned from the Court house to the largest meeting house which has been crowded - you will judge of the intense interest of the case - Our Gov elect against me - with witnesses now in my row - I have hardly been able to skim over your letter - and I write to say that I will write the first moment of leisure, such a moment...I have hardly found from my professional engagements since I came home..." Interesting letter since Pierce resigned his seat in the Senate barely two months earlier supposedly to spend more time and to attend to the needs of his growing family in Concord, NH. Minor stain spot at mid right, otherwise in fine condition.

228 PISSARRO, CAMILLE (1830-1903) ($1600-1800)

French landscape painter, identified with the Impressionist school and later with pointillism. ALS, in French, 1-1/2pp, with integral address leaf, 8vo, on imprinted Hotel et Restaurant De Rome stationery, Paris, July 28, 1897. To his son, Rodolphe Pissarro, he writes: "I am sorry you can't send me the papers concerning the package. We wrote to the Expeditor in London who asked them to send them to him. It is very possible that the French customs made me pay for getting my paintings in. However, these are materials made in France, and have already been taxed; that is what should have been explained to the railroad company. As far as the insurance company was concerned - they refused to do it for me, and anyway, I haven't signed anything. We are thinking of going to Eragny on Friday, and will take the 3:45 train that arrives there at 6:00. We have seven suitcases with carts. I am having Verhaeren over for dinner. He has praised my paintings..." Light soiling, otherwise in fine condition.

229 PRESIDENTS & FIRST LADIES

($350-450)

White House First Day of Issue Card Signed boldly and clearly by Jimmy Carter, Gerald R. Ford, Jacqueline Kennedy, Rosalynn Carter, Betty Ford, and Lady Bird Johnson, 6-1/2" x 9". Signatures surround a beautiful color portrait of the White House & Presidential seal. With White House 22¢ postage stamp, postmarked First Day of Issue, May 22, 1986. Fine.

230 PRESLEY, ELVIS A. (1935-1977)

($650-750)

World's most popular and influential American rock 'n' roll singer in the 1950's. Dark and bold full Signature on white paper, about 12mo, matted with an attractive full color 10x8 picture of a younger Elvis, and framed horizontally under glass in a handsome wooden frame, overall size: 17-1/2" x 21-1/2". Very fine condition.

231 PRESLEY, ELVIS A. ($500-600)
 "The Nations First and Largest Elvis Presley Fan Club" card signed by Elvis in full on the verso, partly printed, about 2" x 4", n.p., n.d. (probably from the early 60's). Minor creases, otherwise in good condition. Elvis' signature is bold and dark.

232 PRESLEY, ELVIS A. ($700-900)
 Signature on ruled white paper, about 5" x 5-1/2", boldly accomplished with a thin black marker. Matted with a 10x8 B&W picture of a younger Elvis holding his guitar, a "Love Me Tender" button memorabilia and a title "Elvis Presley / The King of Rock 'N' Roll / 1935-1977". Excellent for framing; overall size: 15" x 20-1/2".

236 REVOLUTIONARY WAR [2] ($400-500)
 JOHN WATSON, Quartermaster Delaware Battalion of the Flying Camp, 1776. Remarkable ALS, 2-1/2pp, 4to, Hartford, CT, July 12th, 1778. To General Jeremiah Wadsworth, Commissary General, Continental Army, re the Battle of Monmouth. "...Your cautious account of the action of the 28th before the particulars could be obtained, & your correct account of it afterwards were very acceptable to all who prefer truth to conjecture. The fondness of people for telling what they call a good story induces many to tell a false one; & this is the first instance within my remembrance where after account have risen so much above the former...The famous, impenetrable, irresistible, omnipotent British COLUMN have, on a plain been stop[ped], in their march, diverted in their course, & obliged to retreat, with route preception, & disgrace. I hope the day will soon come when the Army will reap the reward of their patience, perseverance & suffering - The eyes of many are turned towards them for the administration of internal justice, which seem to have nearly forsaken the country..." Minor fold splits and small hole partially touching two words, otherwise in good condition. Excellent content. JOHN CLEVES SYMMES (1742-1814), pioneer, Continental Congressman, Associate Justice of NJ Supreme Court, and colonel in a militia which helped cover Washington's retreat through New Jersey. 卷之三

I rejoice in the receipt of your beautiful message on the occasion of my eighty sixth birthday and am happy to report myself in the best of health and spirits, and full of hope and cheer. We had a delightful birthday celebration, with family and friends which lasted for three days.

I send kindest regards and every best wishes for you and yours and for our kinsmen all.

Sincerely yours,

John D. Rockefeller

T. Roosevelt

244 ROOSEVELT, THEODORE ($450-600)
TLS "T. Roosevelt", one page, 8vo, on his name-imprinted The Outlook letterhead, New York, Feb. 17, 1912. To Herbert Welch of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, OH, declining an invitation to speak. "I wish it were possible for my friends to realize my position, not for my own sake, but...From now on I wish to avoid making any speech that I possibly can avoid and greatly though I appreciate an invitation coming from such a body as the one you represent it really is not possible for me to accept. I cannot undertake anything further of any kind or sort now. I am very sorry..." At the time Theodore Roosevelt had just announced his intention to fight President Taft for the Presidential nomination of the Republican Party. Excellent dark signature. Fine.

245 ROOSEVELT, THEODORE [2] ($1500-1750)
Signed Book: African Game Trails, Volumes I & II, illustrated, #328 of only 500 printed, Charles Scribner's Sons, New York, 1910, hardbound half pigskin. Light foxing and mounting traces along edges and on verso, otherwise in fine condition. With engravings of William IV and Melbourne. Ideal for framing.

End of ROYALTY

257 RUNDSTEDT, KARL RUDOLF GERD von (1875-1953) ($200-300)

German field marshal; commander in chief on western front until retired by Hitler. Wartime ALS "Gerd", in German, 2pp, 8vo, April 18, 1941. To his wife on personal matters, largely dealing with payment of taxes, "...the total, not including income tax deduction, must be entered in column II 4. Income tax and war bonus in column IV 1...I never declare the "drips and drabs" of interest...I'm so sorry that I have to bother with this sort of rubbish...now it isn't even worth purchasing securities, as interest is too low..." etc. With transcription and English translation in full.

258 SAINT-SAENS, CAMILLE (1835-1921)

($400-500)

French composer. ALS "C. Saint-Saens", in French, 3pp, on stationery imprinted with "Rue de Courcelles", April 19, 1913. To Marianne, expressing his remembrance and friendship with her, Saint-Saens writes: "How can you think that one can forget you. For me you are always the delightful Marianne whose clear voice and perfect talent interpreted my works of youth...If I would not have such work, I should communicate with you, but I am in an abominable position. Among other things, I change the "Timbre d'Argent" which is a comic opera into a grand opera - intended for: La Monnaie de Bruxelles..." Neatly written and signed. With a typewritten translation. Fine.

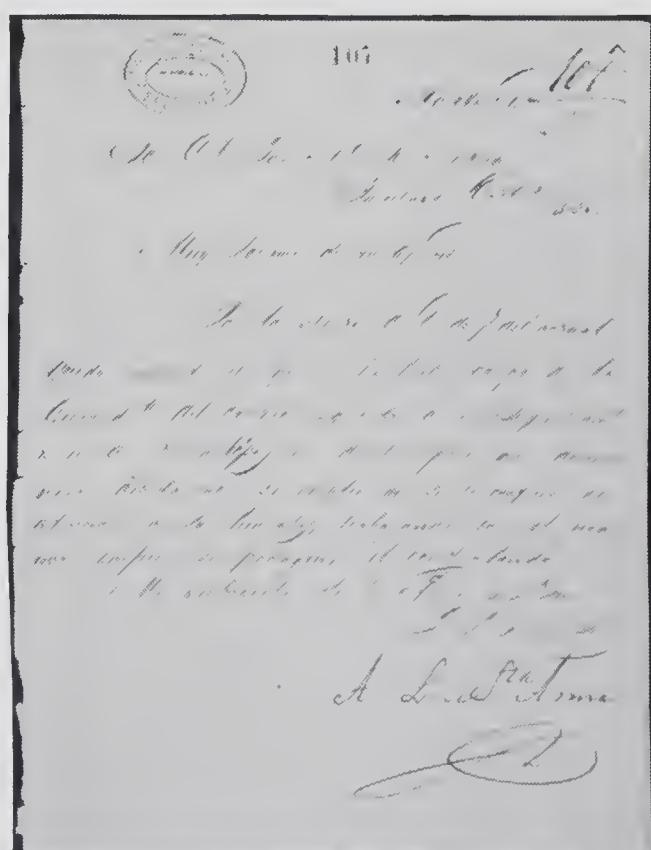

Haym Salomon

259 SALOMON, HAYM (1740-1785)

($12,000-14,000)

American merchant and financier; extended large cash advances to the U.S. Treasury to maintain American credit and gave financial aid to many patriot leaders including Jefferson, Madison and Randolph. Partly printed DS, in French, one page, 4-1/2" X 9", Philadelphia, PA, 1782. Salomon has endorsed this document by affixing his dark full signature across on the verso. Fine.

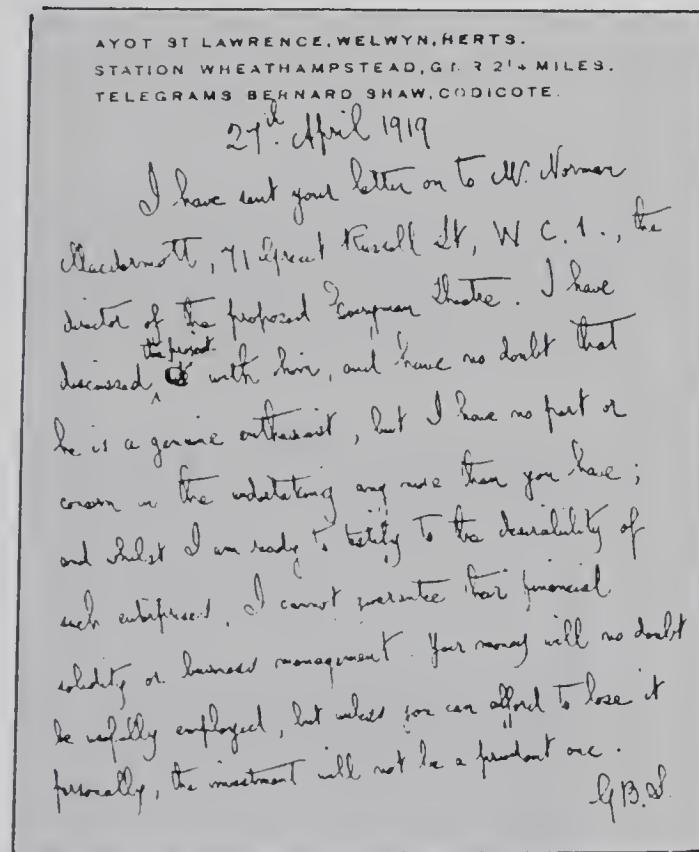

Mexican general of the Alamo fame and President of Mexico some 11 times before his exile in 1855. Handwritten LS as President, in Spanish, one page, 4to, Monterey, October 21, 1853. To Jose D. M. Matera of Tacubaya, Santa Anna writes: "...I am informed that you have assumed command of the counter-smuggling activities of that department (Tacubaya) and that of Tamaulipas, where I hope you will carry out the functions entrusted to you because of your integrity, while working with maximum zeal in pursuing the contraband..." Boldly signed "A. L. de Sta. Anna". Rubber stamp docket on top left. Unevenly cut at left, otherwise in fine condition. With typewritten translation.

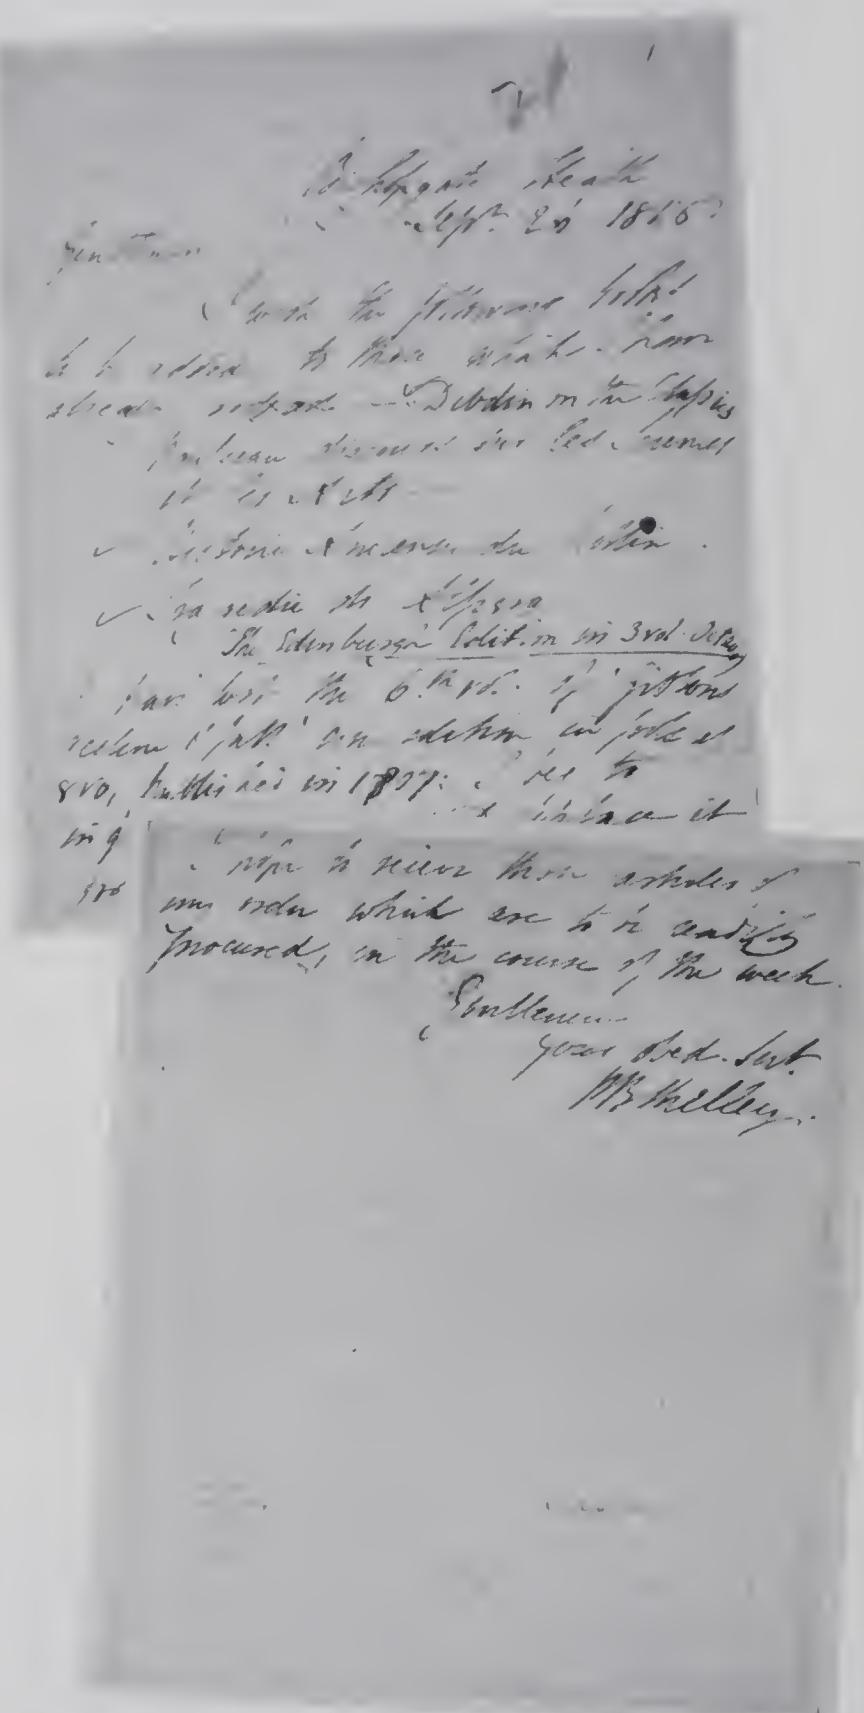

A JOY FOREVER

DS as President, 2pp (separate pages), large folio, Palacio del Gobierno, Mexico, July 27, 1854. Partly printed document in Spanish featuring a large engraving (Mexican arms) at top center and an elaborate folded white paper seal at lower left next to Santa Anna's bold signature. The document concerns payment for merits and services rendered by an army officer. There are splits and paper tape repairs on verso, but intact, complete and do not affect Santa Anna's strong signature. Fine.

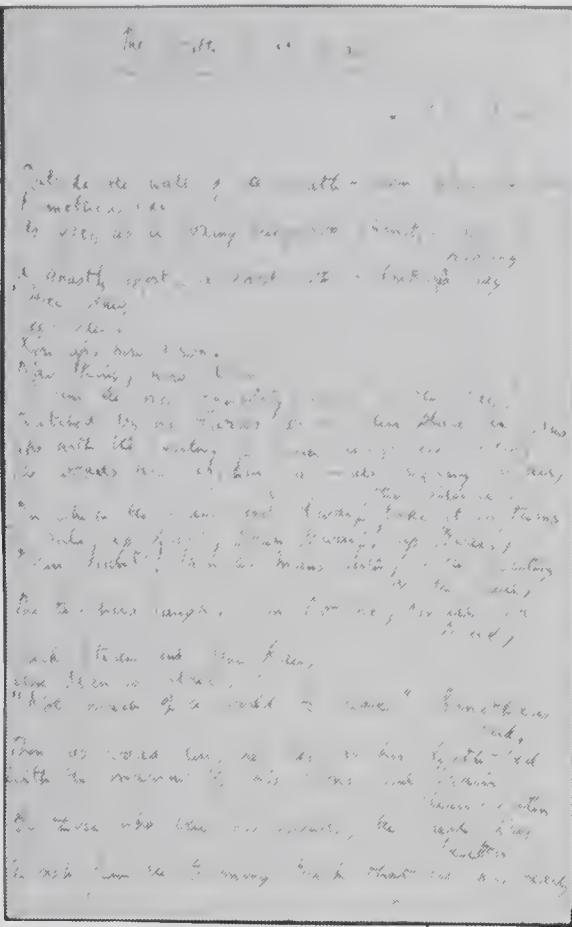

American painter, mainly in Paris and London; official WWI artist, executed murals for the Boston Public Library and the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. ALS, 4pp, 8vo, on stationery imprinted with his address at 33 Tite Street, Chelsea, S.W., n.d. To "My dear Smith", Sargent apologizes for the delay in his reply and looks forward to their meeting. "I owe you all sorts of answers and apologies...letters continually suffer when one has scarcely ten minutes every morning to answer a dozen urgent notes, and no lovely typewriter. I seize this fleeting instant to shake you both by the hand and say that I am looking forward to seeing you and to spending a few violent days with you at Barton's Marble Hall..." Minor fold split not affecting any text. Fine.

Irish playwright, critic and novelist; awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature. ALS "G.B.S.", one page, 3-1/2" x 4-1/2", on his address-imprinted personal correspondence card, Welwyn, Herts, April 27, 1919. To Cyril Hughes Hartman Jr., London, concerning the potential of Hartman's investment in a project. In part, the letter reads: "I have sent your letter to Mr. Norman Macdermott...the director of the proposed Everyman Theater. I have discussed the project with him, and have no doubt that he is a genuine enthusiast; but I have no part or concern in the undertaking any more than you have; and whilst I am ready to testify to the desirability of such enterprises, I cannot guarantee their financial solidity or business management. Your money will no doubt be usefully employed; but unless you can afford to lose it personally, the investment will not be a prudent one." Holograph address and postmarked stamp on the verso. Fine.

One of the greatest English Romantic poets. ALS, 1-1/4pp, 4to, Bishopgate Heath, September 26, 1815. Shelley orders books from an unnamed source (possibly Lackington, Allen & Co.) "I wish the following books to be added to those which I have already ordered - Didbin on the Classics, Rousseau Discours sur les Sciences et les Arts - Histoire Ancienne [sic] du Rollin / Tragedie di Alfiera (The Edinburgh Edition in 3rd Octavo). I have lost the 6th vol. of Gibbons 'Decline & Fall' an edition in foolscap 8vo, published in 1807. I beg to inquire whether you could replace it for me..." Boldly signed "P B Shelley". Neatly inlaid and in very good condition. This letter was partially featured in F. L. Jones' Letters, No.295 [date misread as "1816"]. Shelley was an avid collector of classical, philosophical and literary books. His collection had begun during the London winter following his elopement in Summer of 1816 with Mary Godwin, distinguished English writer herself and daughter of Shelley's mentor, William Godwin.

SOME SEALS ARE NO SEALS AT ALL

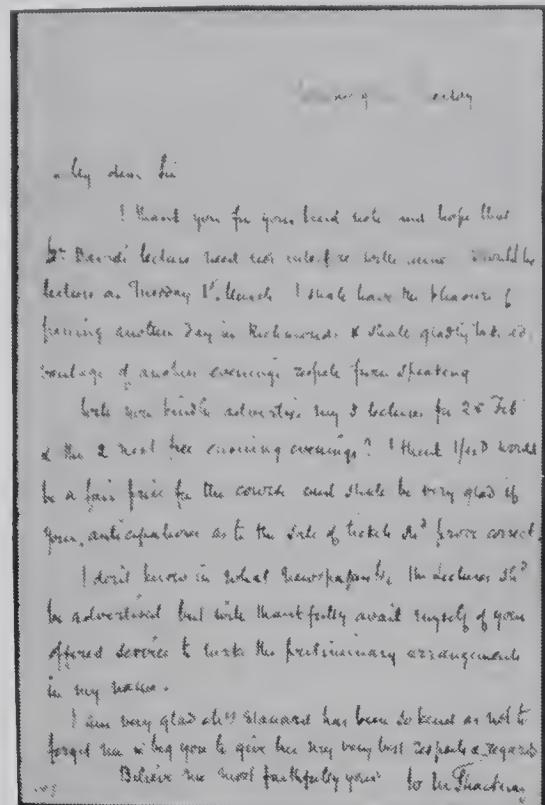

269 STEFANSSON, VILHJALMUR (1879-1962) ($350-400)

Canadian Arctic explorer and ethnologist; expert on Eskimo life and language. TLS, one page, 4to, [American Geographical Society, New York, NY] Adelaide, South Australia, July 7, 1924. Interesting letter to Charles McCombs of Dallas, TX, concerning seals and their tragic fate in the hands of sealers. "There are seals and seals. Some seals are not seals at all, as, for instance, the fur seal which is a sea lion (fur seal being a popular or trade name)...you can walk up to one of the seals and shake hands with him. That may annoy but it will not frighten him. It is perfectly true that on the floating ice beyond Newfoundland and in certain other places sailors go on the ice with shotguns and even clubs and kill thousands..." Excellent letter in fine condition with dark clean signature.

270 STOCKTON, RICHARD (1730-1781) ($750-850)

The pages are foxed with some wear and staining on the cover. Signed in print "G. WASHINGTON / 17th September 1796".

WASHINGTON CONGRATULATES LAFAYETTE OF HIS RELEASE FROM PRISON

289 [WASHINGTON, GEORGE] ($1200-1500)

Unsigned letter-press autograph letter, 2 non-consecutive pages, small 4to, dated "Mount Vernon 8th October 1798". Remarkable unpublished letter penned in General Washington's hand to Lafayette expressing his sentiments on Lafayette's long imprisonment and recent release from Austrian prison. Believed to be Washington's copy, the first page of the letter reads: "This letter will, I hope and expect, be presented to you by your son, who is highly deserving of such Parents as you and your amiable Lady. / He can relate, much better than I can describe, my participation in your sufferings - my solicitude for your relief - the measures I adopted though ineffectually to facilitate your liberation from an unjust & cruel imprisonment - and the joy I experienced at the news of its accomplishment. I shall hasten therefore to congratulate you - and be assured no one can do it with more cordiality - with more sincerity - or with greater affection - on the restoration of that liberty which every act of your life entitles you the enjoyment of / an..." Then the other page reads: "On the Politics of Europe I shall express no opinion; nor make any enquiry who is right, or who is wrong. I wish well to all Nations, and to all men. My politics are plain and simple. I think every Nation has a right to establish that form of government under which it conceives. It shall live most happy, provided it infracts no Rights or is not dangerous to others. And that, no government ought to interfere with the internal concerns of another, except for the security of what is due themselves. / I sincerely hope that Madame La Fayette will accomplish all her wishes in France, and return safe to you...I congratulate you on the marriage of your eldest daughter, and hope to be presented to them both, & to Virginia, in the most respectful & affectionate terms...In all these things Mrs. Washington (as the rest of the family would do, if they were at home) most cordially joins me; as she does in wishing you and them every felicity this life can afford and some consolation for your long, cruel and painful confinement and sufferings." Uneven toning, small piece off the bottom edge of the 2nd page affecting a few letters of the last two words, otherwise in good condition.

290 WAUGH, ALEC (1898-1981) [3]

($1000-2000)

Inscribed Signed Book: The Best Wine Last / An Autobiography Through The Years 1932-1969, 319pp, illustrated, W.H. Allen & Co., London, 1978. To Don "wish fond, fond memories Alec [Waugh] / July, 1978". Also two ALSs, each one page, both addressed to "Don[ita]" to whom Waugh devotes a whole chapter in his book. The earlier letter was written on "Smith's Fancy" card, 4to, Higgins Gate, March 2, 1951, "Welcome back, Don dearest", signed "Alec". The other is on an 8vo sheet, penned by Alec with his full name and address in Tampa, Florida, March 12, 1981, "Dearest Don - This is exciting news, and it is dear of you to invite us out to dinner..." Extraordinary letters written thirty years apart. All Fine.

291 WAUGH, EVELYN (1903-1966) [3]

($375-450)

English novelist; considered the finest English satirical novelist in his day. Brother of Alec Waugh. ALS "Evelyn Waugh", one page, 8vo, on blue Easton Court Hotel stationery, Devon [England], Oct. 16, n.y. In this letter, Waugh responds to an invitation to join a symposium of 34 writers whose attendance required that they make a speech exploiting the literary values of their writing. Waugh writes, in part: "I notice that the prominence given to any writer's books in your exhibition depends on his publishers arrangements...the special publicity devoted to the speeches has to be divided among thirty four. It seems to me that in these circumstances only someone fanatically devoted to public speaking could usually be expected to accept. I dislike it very much and only attempt it for charity or clear personal gain...please excuse me from competing..." Fine. With New York Times Book Review of Waugh and a photo reproduction in his study.

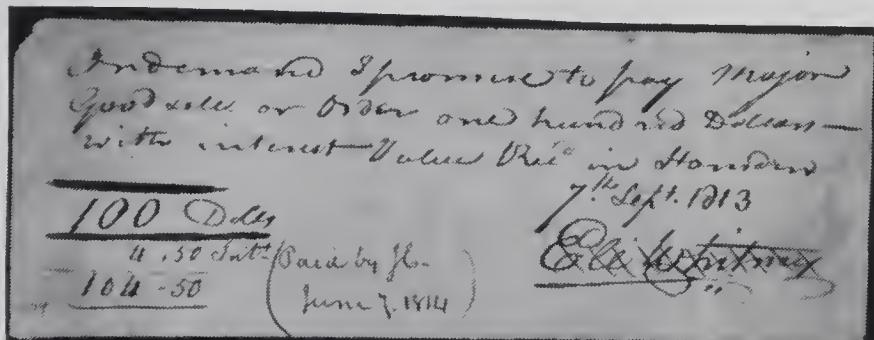

292 WELLINGTON, Duke of (ARTHUR WELLESLEY; 1769-1852) ($350-450)

British general, political leader and statesman; called the Iron Duke, he crushed Napoleon in the Waterloo campaign (1815). ALS "Wellington" while member of Peel's second cabinet as commander in chief, 1-1/4pp, with blank integral address leaf, 12mo, London [England], June 9, 1846. The Duke tells his correspondent about his busy schedule which include going to the Parade of the Guards and attending a Cabinet meeting. Fine.

This is my finished up to our several years I have - and as far as general and as far as I ever manage to find
I believe and Royal visitors to my body.

Dear friends and former residents to John Brown and all who live in Dighton
With my best regards
Very sincerely yours
F. H. Willing

293 WHISTLER, JAMES ABBOT M. (1834-1903) ($750-850)
American painter and etcher; went to Paris to study painting and stayed there for good maintaining studios in London and Paris. Acknowledged as one of the most influential artists of the day. ALS "J. McNeill Whistler, 2pp, 12mo, on black-bordered mourning stationery, "110 Rue de Bac", May 12 [1898]. To Sir Dighton, private secretary to the Prince of Wales [later Edward VII], Whistler writes: "May I still further beg you to say to the Prince, for me, how keenly I appreciate the pains he has taken to gratify our wish. Knowing as I do, how overwhelmed He is with duties and engagements I am exceedingly touched by the very special favour shown - and in this indulgence at such a late hour, I even venture to find a personal and Royal courtesy to myself!..." With handwritten docket on the integral leaf. Fine.

294 WHITNEY, ELI (1765-1825) [2] ($550-650)
American inventor of the cotton gin and interchangeable parts for firearms; operated factory and mass-produced firearms for the Government. ADS, one page, 2-3/4" x 7-1/2", Hamden [CT], September 7, 1813. "On demand I promise to pay Major Goodsell or order one hundred Dollars - with interest. Value Rec'd in Hamden..." Boldly penned and signed in full. Whitney's signature is lightly cancelled by several pen strokes and there is a small corner clipping at top left, otherwise in fine condition. With engraved portrait.

Please note that a 10% buyers charge will be added to each lot purchased on all purchases.

Your old chum
Winston

295 WILDER, THORNTON (1897-1975) ($350-450)
American novelist and playwright. ALS, 4pp, 8vo, Hamden, CT, December 10, 1949. Addressed to "Dear Colonel" (Schiffeler), Wilder writes a long delightful letter, which reads in part: "...I have just written to Mr. Olivier thanking him for his book...It's really exciting reading - one seraphic bonne bouchee after another...delightfully told, but between you and me, this satisfaction at not having it touched-up by an editorial hand is exaggerated...too many airs and graces...and unnecessary facetiousness. Every now and then he coins a happy expression, but "waste no cellular gray matter in guesses as to party of which part came through with the lettuce" and phrases like that, is making an elephant dance a minuet...Tonight I'm giving supper to his namesake, Sir Laurence...and I'm taking the train down at 9:00 to meet him..." Signed "Your old chum / Thornton". With a 3-line initialled postscript. Fine.

296 WILLIAMS, WILLIAM (1731-1811) ($300-400)
Signer of the Declaration of Independence, helped frame the Articles of Confederation, Continental Congressman. ADS "Wm. Williams Clerk", one page, horizontal 8vo, Lebanon, CT, December 6, 1781. Extracts from a meeting of the Governor and Council, directing that the "Committee of Pay Table" draw on the State's Treasury "One Hundred & Eighty Pounds in Solid Coin" to pay to Ebenezer Barnard for his army services. On verso is a docket and a 4-line receipt signed by Barnard. Double matted with Williams' 3" x 2-1/2" portrait, ready for framing. Overall size: 10" x 15-1/2". Fine.

297 WILSON, WOODROW (1856-1924) ($400-500)
President of the United States. DS as President, one page, large folio, parchment, Washington, April 2, 1917. Appointment of Howard Thomas Karsner as Captain in the Medical Section, Officers' Reserve Corps of the U. S. Army. Handsome vignetted document bearing a blue embossed seal of the War Office. Boldly signed in full by Wilson and countersigned by Newton Baker, Secretary of War. Dark signatures and very fine condition.

298 WILSON, WOODROW (1856-1924)

($600-700)

President of the United States. TLS as President of Princeton University, 1-1/2pp (separate pages), 8vo, on imprinted university stationery, Princeton, NJ, September 1, 1906. To Miss Susanna Willard of Cambridge, MA, concerning the deaths of Wilson's brother-in-law, wife and child in a tragic accident. In part, the letter reads: "...They lived at a remote place in Georgia, where he was superintendent of a gold mine. They drove out one morning with their little boy to attend some gathering in the neighborhood, at which the miners were to have a day's pleasure, and their horses became unmanageable as they approached a deep river crossed by a rude ferry. The horses ran directly across the ferry boat into eighteen feet of water. The stream was so powerful that they were at once swept rapidly away, and there was no one at hand to assist them. They were all drowned. It was, taking it altogether, one of the saddest and most complete tragedies [sic] I have known of. Their life was full of the brightest happiness, and he was only at the beginning of a career of unusual vigour and usefulness..." Signed in full. An exceptional letter with unusual content. Very fine condition.

RARE NEW JERSEY SIGNER

299 WITHERSPOON, JOHN (1723-1794)

($850-1200)

Continental Congressman and rare Signer of the Declaration of Independence. DS, one page, about 4" x 8", Amboy, NJ, June 11, 1779. Payment for service in the House of Assembly. Signed in the text and endorsed by Witherspoon on the verso. Minor aging and fraying at upper left, otherwise in very good condition. Scarce and of war date.

300 WOLCOTT, OLIVER (1726-1797)

($500-600)

Signer of the Declaration of Independence. Autograph Notes Signed, either side of a small 4to, laid paper, dated Goshen, December 11, 1760 and Litchfield, December 30, 1760 respectively. In the earlier note, Wolcott penned the text of a receipt writing his name in various forms three times. The receipt deals with a horse and a cow taken by Wolcott from an Estate in his capacity as sheriff and delivered for safekeeping to one Lent Calls who has signed the receipt. In the latter note Wolcott directs Lent Calls to deliver the aforesaid cattle; this note was penned and signed by Wolcott. Splits professionally repaired. Fine.

301 WOOLWORTH, FRANK W. (1852-1919)

($600-750)

American merchant who founded the chain of stores bearing his name. At one time had over 1000 stores in the U.S. and 75 in Great Britain. Partly printed DS, 3pp, folio, Lancaster, PA, September 30, 1907. Lease for the Woolworth Building in Lancaster, PA at $1452 per year or $121 per month for the year 1907-8. Fine. We are told that the Woolworth store in Lancaster was the first in the great chain.

THE MANHATTAN PROJECT

302 WORLD WAR II: Development of the Atom Bomb, 1943-46.

[24] ($400-600)

Dr. Irving Kaplan and Dr. Francis Bonner, outstanding American Scientists - working with Dr. Harold Urey, renowned Nobel Prize chemist were instrumental in developing the atom. At the war's end, they were vitally concerned with the potential destructiveness of nuclear power in peace-time if misused by the U.S. or foreign countries. Therefore, they organized a group of scientists in the New York area called The Association of Manhattan Project Scientists. Their objective was to help establish controls over the future use of the bomb's capabilities by working closely with the United Nations and influencing U.S. Congressional action.

This lot contains the original 16 pages of holographic notes written by Bonner and Kaplan during initial meetings of The Association. They were kept intact in the possession of Mildred Goldberg, secretary to the Manhattan Project, with her personal recollection and notes about the inside operation of The Manhattan Project in the years 1943-1946. Her fascinating 6-page typed memoirs, previously unpublished, contain references to Dr. Urey, Dr. Robert Oppenheimer, and Gen. Leslie Groves, commander of the Manhattan Engineer District of the atom bomb project.

In their 16-pages holographic notes, signed by Dr. Bonner, the impassioned feelings of Bonner and Kaplan are freely expressed: "...We have seen in the case of Hiroshima and Nagasaki that one crude, pioneering atomic bomb is sufficient to destroy a city of medium size...further development will result in bombs of vastly greater destructive potential..."

The entire lot of 24 holographic and typewritten pages is carefully preserved in a binder in good to fine condition. A photo includes four identified scientists in The Manhattan Project, including Bonner and Kaplan.

303 WRIGHT, FRANK LLOYD (1869-1959) [2]

($1600-1800)

Celebrated American architect; among his notable works is his own residence, Taliesin, at Spring Green, WI, Guggenheim Museum in New York City, etc. Remarkable ALS "Frank", one page, with integral address leaf, 8vo, [Chicago, July 11, 1925]. To his divorced wife, Miriam, at the Auditorium Hotel, Chicago, Frank writes his estranged wife: "Miriam - Maginel's husband has just died. She is with me for a time. Frances is coming in a few days. I could hope that a spirit of "live and let live" might arrange a settlement between us without more dirty linen or emotional fizzles. If you will see me with Judge Hill to talk matters over calmly - I will do all I can to meet your needs at present and establish you comfortably, so far as I can, in future - You must see that this is the only course open to either of us..." With the original envelope addressed in his hand to "Miriam Lloyd Wright", stamped and postmarked. Fascinating letter written by Wright at the conclusion of his stormy marriage, showing his concern for his ex-wife's welfare. Very fine condition.

304 YEATS, WILLIAM B. (1865-1939)

($400-600)

Irish poet and dramatist; awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1923. TLS "W. Yeats", one page, 4to, Euston Road, n.p., June 22, 1904. To Miss Boughton, noted American photographer, thanking her for a photograph. "...indeed the photographs which you have done for me and by a lady in Chicago are the only good ones I have ever had. Your photograph of my brother [Jack Butler, writer & painter] is extremely like him as well as very picturesque and vivid..." Yeats goes on to mention his two popular plays in prose, The Pot of Broth and The Hour Glass. Boldly signed with a closing and a holograph correction. With the original postmarked envelope. Fine.

305 YEATS, WILLIAM B.

($300-400)

ALS "WB Yeats", 1/2 page, 4to, ruled paper, c/o Madam Jours, Collville, July 15, n.y. To Mr. O'Brien, Yeats, who had just lost his secretary, explains the delay of his response and writes "This note is merely to say that I have written for the recently published English translation for purposes of comparison and will let you know what I think when it comes...I shall read your play in 2 weeks then I write to you." Fine.

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS

306 [ZENGER, PETER] HAMILTON, ANDREW

($375-425)

Document Signed twice as Justice of the Peace by Andrew Hamilton, the Philadelphia attorney who defended John Peter Zenger, a New York printer, acquitted of libel in 1735. After Hamilton's success, the term "Philadelphia Lawyer" became prominent. On the back of a deed on vellum dated December 1737, Hamilton has notarized each of the two parties involved in the sale of property in Philadelphia, PA. Soiled and aged, otherwise fine.

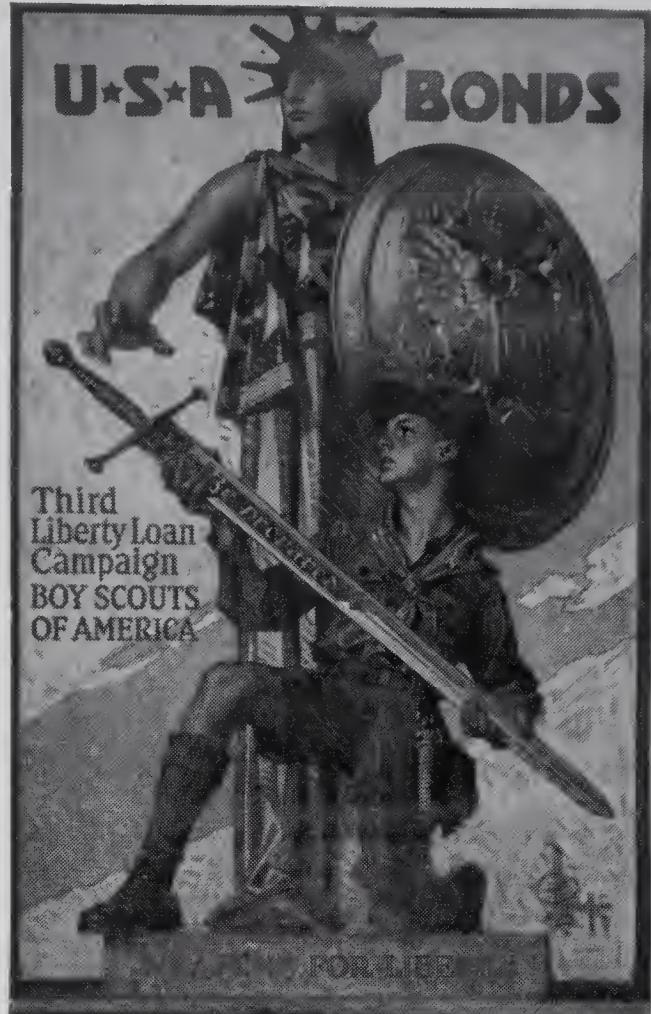

307 ZIEGFELD, FLORENZ (1869-1932)

($600-700)

American vaudeville producer; founder of the famous Follies. TLS "Flo", one page, 4to, on his personal letterhead, New York, March 17, 1916. Interesting letter to Charlie B. Dillingham, Globe Theatre, NY, Ziegfeld writes: "If the papers keep on, we will be a couple of office boys in the minds of the public at the Century. After we have signed the papers, we must see that the proper statement is given out by Mr. Kahn, and our friends Hearst, Logan, Swope etc, will I am sure, do the right thing. The only thing I care for is the impression at 42nd Street...Don't you think it possible that Mr. Kahn might consent to hold back Najanski (sic) and Karsivana (sic) for our opening at the Century, if it is not positively arranged that they join the Russian Ballet on the return date?..." The "Mr. Kahn" mentioned in this letter is the American banker and philanthropist, Otto Hermann Kahn, owner of Century Theater and considered one of the greatest (if not the greatest) patron of arts in U.S. history. Fine.

Lot 310

Victory in World War I was achieved by the heroic efforts of the troops in the trenches, by the superhuman efforts of the fledgling airforce and by the financial efforts of millions of Americans who generously offered their savings for the War effort. The Liberty Loans were a new concept in America. The first Loan was subscribed to $3 Billion, the second one sold out its $4 Billion allotment in three weeks. The third and fourth Loans were rated even better. The fifth or Victory Loan was begun in 1919 and lasted scarcely ten days, with over $6 Billion in pledges. All together nearly $22 Billion was lent to finance the costs of the War. The success of this monumental effort was in a large way attributable to the poster message as well as the follow up by thousands of Boy Scouts recruited to knock on every door.

LIBERTY LOAN

308 THIRD LIBERTY LOAN

($350-450)

Campaign Boy Scouts of America. Weapons for Liberty. The compelling juxtaposition of the Statue of Liberty draped in an American Flag stands behind a young, kneeling Boy Scout. The serious expression of commitment to the cause while holding the Sword of Victory inscribed with the magic words Be Prepared sets the tone of high drama. This Poster has the printed signature of the artist. The colors are primary and rich with the gold of Liberty's shield and the decoration on the sword giving the Poster a very rich appearance. The condition of this piece is unusually good.

FOOD POSTER

309 THE HEBREW FOOD POSTER

($400-450)

The text is in Hebrew and is one of a Wartime topic of series of Posters in several different languages on the importance of conserving food. In the background is the Statue of Liberty, such a powerful symbol at this time, with the lower Manhattan skyline stretched behind. Several immigrants are watching the battleship leave with food supplies for the troops. The colors are strong and the condition is good except for some rough edges along the right side.

PATRIOTIC POSTERS

310 L'Italia poster on which an illustrious Italian general is making his pitch to the Italian American people to save food in order to send it to the Italian troops and people. A very simple, but effective directive. The text is in Italian. 2) The Patriot Kosciuszko performs the same task for the Polish Americans. He is depicted wearing his dashing plumed hat. The text is in Polish. Both are in fine condition. [2] ($450-500)

Thomas Jefferson President of the United States of America

To the Executive Directory of the Batavian Republic

Citizens Directors

The interests of the United States which were committed to the care of William Evans Murray, their Minister Resident near the Batavian Republic, admitting of his absence, we have yielded to his request to be permitted to return to America. We will accordingly take his leave of you, and will embrace that occasion to assure you of our friendship and sincere desire to preserve and strengthen the harmony and good understanding so happily subsisting between the Batavian Republic and the United States. We are persuaded he will do this in the manner most expressive of those sentiments and of the respect and sincerity with which they are offered.

We pray God to keep you, Citizens Directors, under His Holy protection.

Written at the city of Washington, the thirtieth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and one.

T. Jefferson

By the President

J. Madison Secretary of State
